[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]
HARRISBURG, February 2, 1872.

SENATE.

CHANGE OF CHAIRMAN.

Mr. DAVIS, of Berks, was made Chairman of the Corporations Committee, Mr. Anderson withdrawing.

PITTSBURGH AND NORWOOD RAILROAD.

Mr. ANDERSON called up and had passed the Pittsburgh and Norwood Railroad bill.

FINAL ORGANIZATION.

The lobbies were crowded to hear the result of the final organization of the Senate, the Republican Senators being unusually reticent as to the action taken. They were understood to have taken action in the event of McClure contesting Mr. Gray's seat.

The following Republican caucus nominees were elected to the various offices:

Assistant Clerks—J. R. McAfee and T. B. Cochran. This arrangement cut out Mr. Carson of the Philadelphia Morning Post who had been the regular caucus nominee until the election in the Fourth District.

Transcribers—J. Ross, David Lane, A. K. Warfel, L. W. Thiekson, C. K. Sartwell and S. Curwens.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Jas. Hall.

Assistants—Howell Jones, and Joseph Olmstead.

Doorkeeper—Capt. John K. Swartz.

Assistants—R. P. McCall and Wm. Shergold.

Librarian—Sullivan S. Childs.

Post Master—Abram Lutz.

Messenger—T. B. Monks.

Assistants—W. W. Heep and Wm. Bates.

Superintendent—M. L. Sherwood, with six pasters and folders, and one doorkeeper of the rotunda.

The Democrats made an effort to have Jacob Shyers substituted for Librarian, but failed.

Adjourned till Monday evening.

HOUSE.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. EDWARDS, regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors in Allegheny county, which increases the rates of license and penalties, and vests the right of liquor sellers in a bond, to be approved by the Common Pleas Court. Referred to Allegheny Delegation; also authorizing the grading and construction of Wildwood avenue, in Plum township, with a remonstrance against the same; also amending the registry act of the Board of Health, to make it more effective in the registry of births and marriages; also authorizing the County Commissioners and Township Supervisors and Auditors to purchase implements for repairing and making roads; also authorizing the surrender of the Lawrenceville and Sharpsburg Plankroad to Pittsburgh city; also a supplement for the People's Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, giving them banking privileges.

By Mr. BALLANTINE, authorizing Temperanceville borough to vacate a portion of Chestnut street.

By MILLER, a supplement to an act prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in certain boroughs and townships of Allegheny. Passed May 14th, 1871, amending said act so as to cover North Versailles township; also divorcing Atlea and Emily Calhoun.

By. Mr. TAYLOR, incorporating the Union Passenger Railway of Allegheny.

By Mr. SAMPLE, establishing a ferry over the Ohio river at Shousetown.

By Mr. BURKHOLDER, for the better protection of the wages of mechanics, miners and laborers, which gives the employes of companies &c., a preferred lien for not more than two dollars for wages due at the insolvency of the employers.

Adjourned till monday evening. S.

THE ALLEGHENY WORK HOUSE.

The following is the condensed text of the bill recently introduced by Mr. Miller for the better management of the Allegheny County Work House:

The first section provides that the managers of the Allegheny County Work House and Inebriate Asylum shall be a corporation, under the name stated, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with the power to make and use a common seal, change the same, establish, erect and manage the Work House and Inebriate Asylum, to make contracts, to sue and be sued by that name and title, capable of purchasing, selling and holding real estate in the county, for the use of the corporation that may be necessary for carrying on the operations of the institution, and to the profitable employment of the inmates, provided the same be not repugnant to State or National Constitutions or laws.

The second section authorizes the managers to discharge from the Work House, without delay or expense of any proceeding under the insolvent laws of the Commonwealth, every prisoner who may have served out his or her term for which such prisoner was or may be sentenced, notwithstanding such prisoner may not have paid the costs of prosecution, or any fine to the Commonwealth, restored the property stolen or paid the value thereof, if the managers are of the opinion that the prisoner is unable to pay the same. The proviso is made, however, that no such discharge shall take place until the prisoner make duplicate schedules of all his property, real, personal and mixed, one of which shall be filed by the managers, and the other transmitted to the court or magistrate before whom the prisoner was tried. A further proviso is made that the discharge shall not interfere with the Commonwealth, county, public officers, or any person or persons who may be interested in the payment or restitution to recover the amount from the property of such prisoner, by writs of fi. fa. and vend. ex., or other writs, as the case may require.

The third section authorizes and requires the managers to receive the convicts of the United States Courts, subject to the same discipline and treatment as convicts sentenced by the courts of the Commonwealth. The expense of keeping such convicts is to be paid by the United States, at such rates as may be agreed upon with the managers.

Section four provides that any officer of the Work House who may permit a prisoner under his charge to escape through gross negligence, shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be sentenced to not more than one year's imprisonment, and to pay a fine of not more than $500.

Section five authorizes and requires the Controller and Commissioners to levy and appropriate a special tax for 1872 of one mill on the assessed valuation of the county for expenses incurred in keeping prisoners and managing the institution during the year, money to be paid over to the managers as soon as collected, together with the residue of any funds heretofore collected liquidate any bonds issued for the erection of the Work House.

Section six changes the words "two years," in the fourth section of the "act for the better management of Allegheny county prisons," to "three years," and authorizes the Judges of the several Courts of the Western District of Pennsylvania, at their discretion, to sentence all parties convicted of any crime except murder, manslaughter, rape or arson, to the Work House for any perion not exceeding four years.

The seventh section provides that the managers may, if they deem it expedient furnish discharged convicts with any sum; not exceeding six dollars, out of the funds in the hands of the treasurer, to obviate the temptation of theft before employment can be obtained.

Section eight provides that no person who has not a written permission according to such rules as the Manager may adopt, shall be allowed to visit the Work House. The section designates who are official visitors, and further provides that none but official visitors can have communication with the convicts, nor shall any visitor whatever be permitted to deliver or receive from any convict any message or letter, or supply them with any article of any kind, under a penalty of fifty dollars fine, to be recovered in the usual manner, one-half to go to the informer and the other half to the Work House treasury.

The ninth and tenth sections provide for commutation of sentence for good conduct.

The eleventh section gives the managers full power to discharge criminals as soon as their term of service expires, and the twelfth provides that the managers shall direct the superintendent to give to each prisoner who may be discharged for good conduct at an earlier period than that for which he was sentenced, a certificate showing the number of days deducted from the original sentence.

LEGISLATURES.

Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, February 2—A Jefferson City special states that the Democratic caucus there last night took no definite action in regard to what course should be pursued in the House respecting the Governor's veto. A general discussion was had, and a motion was made to postpone consideration of the veto till the first of March; but it failed, and the caucus adjourned till Monday next.

The Liberal Republicans of the House also held a caucus, by a vote of fifteen to three decided to sustain the Governor's veto, and also agreed to a postponement of action on the veto in the House till the 15th inst., to give the Committee of Ways and Means time to perfect a plan for funding the State indebtedness.

THE STATE.

BEAVER FALLS is to have gas works.

PROTRACTED meetings are prevalent in Somerset county.

GREENVILLE has just gotten up a "gas and water company."

SAMUEL BAREFOOT and Josiah Shoemaker are two Bedford county jurors.

A LIVERY STABLE is to be started at the Fayette Springs Hotel, next summer.

WARREN has uniformed its policemen. There are two of them, and they are both dressed alike.

MRS. JOHN SIMS, of Big Tree, Green county, added two boys and a girl to the population the other day, and they are all flourishing.

CONRAD CRYLE, of Wayne township, Green county, was killed on the 24th ult. by a tree, which he had been chopping, falling unexpectedly.

MRS. GEO. W. MERTZ, of Lewistown, slipped and fell on the ice last week, and died of the effects of the fall a few days later. She had been married but six weeks.

ERIE has had some successful scientific lectures by Prof. Waterhouse Hawkins and others. It is singular that Pittsburgh's lecture courses don't pay if they are not sensational.

MR. LYONS, of Lake township, Mercer county, was found dead in his bed on the morning of 22d. He was at church on Sabbath, and was in his usual health when the family retired.

UNIONTOWN has been having a grand wedding reception for Mr. J. A. Modisette and his bride. Some very elegant dresses are described in the local papers, and a number of Pittsburghers were present.

MR. JOHN CHARLES, a soldier of 1812, aged 94, went to Wilkesbarre, recently, to draw his pension, and that night, while at the hotel, some villain entered his room and stole his money, leaving the veteran without the means to return home.

A LAD named Crawford, at Mifflin, tried to run across the bridge, of which a part of the floor had been taken up for repairs—a fact of which he was not aware. A fall or leap of 25 feet, to the frozen stream below, was the result. No serious injury resulted.

THE Somerset Herald says: The Directors of our Branch Road, we understand, have concluded to run the road under their own immediate supervision. Arrangements have been made for the purchase of a locomotive, two passenger cars, and several freight cars.

THE dwelling house of Mrs. Lacock, situated on the upper side of the P. F. W. & C. R. R., and a short distance above the Rochester depot, was entirely consumed by fire on Monday afternoon last. The cause of the fire was a defective flue. Most of the furniture was saved. The loss is estimated at $3,000—no insurance.

THE Waynesburg Republican says: Mr John Morris died Sunday morning last at his late residence in Morrisville, Franklin township. Mr. Morris had reached his 89th year, and was one of the first settlers of Greene county, emigrating here from New Jersey some seventy years ago, in company with Joseph Throckmorton, who is still living in this county, and who is near the same age.

THE Otis Iron Company, of Sharon, are now building four additional puddling furnaces and adding a muck-bar mill to their works. When these additions are completed it will give them a total of sixteen puddling furnaces in their mill with the necessary machinery of working the blooms from them into muck-bar. This mill has been running double turn ever since it started.

MR. D. W. SHRYOCK, for more than twenty-one years, editor of the Greensburg Herald, has penned his valedictory and sold his paper to Messrs. Atkinson and Weddell. Mr. Shryock has been a fearless and able editor, and a good Republican, he has done much to aid his party in the western part of the State, and has succeeded in securing the esteem of all who know him. He has grown old in the harness and will be sadly missed from the post which he has filled so long and so well.

JOHN SLAGHERTY, employed by Samuel Flood, of Dunbar, and living at his house, went home drunk on the 25th ult. after every one, but Mrs. Flood and a servant girl, was in bed. He attacked and began to beat these women, who defended themselves with a poker, and, after a desperate struggle ejected him. By this time Mr. Flood was aroused and came down in time to meet the second attack of the drunken man. A terrible struggle ensued during which both men were badly beaten; finally Slagherty drew a knife, when Flood rushed up stairs, got his gun and shot Slagherty in the right side, so that he is now lying in a very critical condition. Flood was not arrested.

THE Brownsville Clipper says: Some days since the male citizens of Beallsville, Washington Co., Pa., formed themselves into a committee of the whole in order to have a general rat hunt. They elected Capt. Hartley on the north side, and Capt. Wilson on the south side of the street, running parallel with the National road. The companies thus organized went at it rough shod, "without fear, favor or affection," but not "without reward or hope of reward;" for the agreement was entered into in good faith that the party killing the smallest number should pay for an oyster supper; and at it they went, ransacking stables, tearing up hog pen floors, looking into cellars and kitchens—killing some four thousand rats.

THE Beaver Radical says: We learn from Superintendent Fields that Harmony district, this county, will put into operation schools under the School System of the State during the coming summer. The district is composed of what is known as the Economy Society. Practically, the acceptance of the System, owing to the peculiar organization of the Society, will be of no great advantage to the district. But in order to remove any seeming hostility to the great cause of popular education, the society judged it proper to conduct its educational affairs in accordance with our present School law. It should be remarked that the citizens of this district have always been the most liberal and progressive friends of education of any in the county or State.

—Mr. J. D. Clark, a prominent banker and a member of the firm of Stearing, Clark & Co., well known manufacturers of saw-mill machinery, &c., died at his residence in Erie, Pa., on Thursday.

—No laborers are to be had at Panama or Aspinwall, owing to a universal strike.

CONGRESS.

Chicago Relief Bill.

EDUCATIONAL FUND.

An Interesting Debate.

WASHINGTON, February 2, 1872.

HOUSE.

THE CHICAGO RELIEF BILL.

Mr. FINKELNBURG presented a memorial against the passage of the Chicago Relief bill as impracticable and unjust, unsettling values, complicating the revenue, opening the way for frauds, and imposing on a few classes the burden of relief which should be born alike by all.

FOREIGN TRADE.

On motion of Mr. LYNCH, the Secretary of the Treasury was requested to give information as to the tonnage and trade of the United States for the year 1870 with foreign countries.

INDIAN APPROPRIATION BILL.

The Indian Appropriation bill came up, and was argued at considerable length. An amendment was adopted that no payment be made to hostile tribes, and that deductions for Indian depredations be made. Then the bill was passed.

REIMBURSING.

Mr. PERCE introduced a bill to pay the College of William and Mary, in Virginia, $65,000 for the destruction made by disorderly soldiers during the war.

The House then proceeded to consider the bill in Committee of the whole. Mr. FARNSWORTH and others, however, made objections, and the bill went over.

PATENT EXTENSIONS.

Several bills for the extension of patents were passed.

EDUCATIONAL FUND.

The House then took up the bill to establish an educational fund, and apply the proceeds of public lands to the education of the people.

Mr. MCHENRY made a speech against the bill.

Mr. HIBBARD (N. H.) opposed the bill, saying that he regarded it as an opening merely for paving the way for a comprehensive system of national education, for a postal telegraph law, and for other kindred legislation, until every right heretofore regarded as being vested in the State will be absorbed by the General Government.

Mr. KERR also opposed the bill, and referred to Mr. Hoar's speech in support of it, as being unworthy of him, and as being designed to make false charges against the Democratic party in connection with education. He charcterized that speech as extremely discreditable to Mr. Hoar and unjust towards the Democratic party, whose record in connection with education was illustrious and glorious. The State of Indiana had to-day a munificent educational fund of about eight and a half millions.

Mr. HOAR suggested that that fund came from public lands.

Mr. KERR—By no means.

Mr. HOAR—No part of it?

Mr. KERR—I did not say so.

Mr. HOAR—No; but I ask you—that is all.

Mr. KERR cited from what sources the fund was deriued, $3,500,000 being from bonds issued by the State, and about $4,000,000 from public lands.

Mr. HOAR—Then the gentleman admits that the bill is precisely in the line of the Democrotic policy in its better days.

Mr. KERR—This bill is precisely out of the line with the Democratic policy, and is precisely in the line of the present and past policy of the Republican party towards the States of the Union.

Mr. BIRD opposed the bill as being the child of the Freedmen's Bureau, and a revival of that system of legislation.

Mr. PARKER (N. H.) opposed the bill and claimed that the Democratic party had always been the special champion of education, and he referred to the last messages of the Governors of New Hampshire and New Jersey on that point.

Mr. TOWNSEND (Pa.) advocated the bill and replied to Mr. Parker's speech.

Mr. GOODRICH offered an amendment to distribute the fund for the first ten years according to the date of illiteracy in the several States, as shown by the last census.

Mr. MCNEELY offered an amendment admitting printing material free of duty.

Mr. BURCHARD suggested certain amendments in the details of the bill.

Mr. SHELLABARGER advocated the passage of the bill, and defended it against the charge of constitutionality. He cited various acts of Legislation which formed precedents for the prvisions of this bill.

Mr. BIGGS defended his State (Delaware) from the assertions of Mr. Townsend (Pa.,) and remarked that that gentleman lived near the border line of Delaware, and it was no wonder that he and persons who were given to his practices should be a little afraid of the whipping post [This insinuation against the venerable member from Pennsylvania was so ludicrous as to provoke laughter all over the house.]

He next turned his attention to the speech by Mr. Hoar some weeks ago, in which some allusions were made to discredit of Delaware, and said that he would read the criminal statistics of the saintly State of Massachusetts. He would read crimes in their alphabetical order. They used up all the letters of the alphabet except the last four. [Laughter.] He found that in four years, 1866, '67, '68 and '69, the number of criminal prosecutions in Massachusetts was 10,036. They had increased from 1,945 in 1866 to 3,459 in 1869, and what were these crimes? Arson, adultery, burglary, bigamy, [laughter,] conspiring to defraud, drunkenness, defacing tombstones [Laughter] forgery, horse stealing, [Laughter] robbery, keeping hotels without a license, [Laughter] night walking, [Laughter] obtaining money under false pretences [Laughter] perjury, polygamy, [Laughter] playing cards on Sunday, attending cock fights, refusing to pay railroad fares, selling liquor, selling obscene prints, selling diseased meat, and threatening to burn churches. [Renew laughter.] When the honorable gentleman from Massachusetts talked about the illiteracy of Delaware he should tell the House how Massachusetts presented such a black record.

Mr. HOAR asked Mr. Briggs if the source from which he had obtained his statistics did not show that over eighty per cent. of those crimes were committed by persons of foreign birth.

Mr. BRIGGS, interrupting, said: "That will do. Is not that an unreasonable thing to ask me to go into the State of Massachusetts and ascertain whether a person committing such crimes as those is an Englishman or a Dutchman?" [Laughter.]

Mr. HOAR—Eighty per cent, and more of those crimes were committed by persons of foreign birth, every man of whom votes the Democratic ticket. [Laughter and applause on the Republican side.

Mr. BIGGS—The foreigners who have fled from their own countries and come over here are many of them poor and illiterate, and it is a shame for the gentleman from Massachusetts to undertake to cast such a reflection on the foreign population of the country.

Mr. HOAR—It is the census of the United States that says so, not I.

Mr. MCINTYRE offered and urged a substitute to give the whole fund, not merely the half of it, to the Southern States for educational purposes.

The debate here closed to be renewed on Tuesday next.

After some further business the House adjourned.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Steamboat Law.

PHILADELPHIA, February 2.—At a meeting of the Philadelphia Association of Owners and Managers of Steam Vessels to-day, it was stated that owing to a persistent attack upon the proposed new steamboat law by one or two members of the House Committee on Commerce, that members of the western river and lake steamers had telegraphed last night from Washington to their agents to refuse to carry passengers under the existing laws, which action will tend very much to embarrass the passenger trade, but, under the circumstances, the owners have no option in the matter. Measures are proposed which, it is said, will in a few days go to show that the patent right men have bought up certain parties who are opposing the proposed change in the law, and using their influence to coerce members of Congress.

CUSTOM HOUSE INVESTIGATION.

At the Custom House investigation today, Edward C. Johnson, who was formerly in the General Order business, testified that the other day he offered Leet sixty thousand dollars a year for the business. Formerly the price of storage was regulated by the Chamber of Commerce. The witness thought the recipients of this general order monopoly were obliged to make it up by charges on merchants for what the privilege of having the business costs. Leet and Stocking can make money by charging five dollars for a load of twenty five passengers, and then charging the merchants twenty five dollars.

There is an immense profit on storage, because a month's storage is paid upon goods which remain only a few days; their places are then taken up by others on which another month's storage is paid, and so on until a loft in the general order store makes for its owner five and six months' storage in one. I never heard of so much pilfering in the general order departments of cartage, &c., as there has been since Leet & Stocking have had the monopoly of this business. All control of charges is vested in the collector. He has the power to shut up every Custom House and General Order Store, if he feels so disposed. I suggested to Mr. Murphy that he should correct the terrible abuses growing out of the present General Order system, representing to him the damage they were doing to the Republican party. I told him that the merchants were complaining on every hand, and that he must do something to alleviate the burdens. Mr. Murphy replied that notwithstanding his well known control over the stores in general, he had not the power and could not interfere with this part of the General Order business. I know that there are 25,000 persons in federal offices now whose only recommendatian to their ports is their ability to manipulate rascals who control primary elections. The greater the scoundrel, in my opinion, the better his chance for a good appointment. I have heard men say they have been discharged because they refused to pay the political assessment demanded of them.

ANOTHER TROUBLE

is that on the arrival of steamers persons having tickets are permitted to go down on the pier. This may bring a number of improper persons near the steamer and facilitate smuggling. Mr. Terwilliger, when he took upon himself the right to come down to the docks and grant permits to individuals to come on the pier when a vessel arrived, ruled that tickets of admission to the pier gave persons the privilege of going on board the steamer when her gang plank was put out, thereby affording smugglers a splendid opportunity to operate. I have observed of the most flagrant character among the Custom House officers which I reported to my superiors with very poor results. I remember an instance when a number of ladies came ashore at quarantine in the Doctor's boat, and afterwards exhibited a large quantity of diamonds and jewelry which they said had been passed by the Custom House officers on board the steamer at quarantine.

James H. Young, Inspector of Customs since 1869, was examined. He said there are sixteen European steamers a week. On the Cunard dock there are rations of six or eight bottles of English ale and porter, with a decanter of liquor sent to the Inspector's office at eleven o'clock every day. This brings a crowd of good-for-nothing fellows to the docks, which is very hurtful.

HOW IT IS DONE.

There is a very easy way of doing the business of smuggling. A gentleman going to Europe takes the measure of several lady friends for wardrobes. On his return with them, the ladies for whom he has made the purchases come down to the pier when the steamer arrives. The gentleman then declares that the ten or twelve trunks he is landing contain wearing apparel of these ladies whom he represents as passengers.

DEAD-BEATING ON TIME.

The witness told of an incident which occurred on a Cunard steamer. A corpse was brought over in a case and a hearse was on the dock to receive it. But in placing it in the vehicle the jar shook it and a ringing noise was heard. The case was opened and found to be full of French clocks. Senator Bayard jocosely remarked "that was a corpse for time, and not for eternity."

THE TAMMANY THIEVES.

The Tribune says it is understood that Tweed, Connolly and Garvey have recently had conferences for the purpose of effecting a compromise of the suits against them by the Attorney General, and that their agents have ascertained that the State would be willing to accept in settlement of the Board of Audit claims six million dollars, two-thirds of the amount. But as the criminals were not assured that other prosecutions would not be commenced against them, no conclusion was reached. There is reason to believe that this report is unfounded.

J. McB. Davidson, the ring safe manufacturer, was to have given State's evidence before the Grand Jury this week, but he was tampered with and fled South.

In the investigation of the printing frauds, Parsons, one the State printers, testifies to having given one Ed Phelps ten thousand dollars for lobby services. It had been the habit, he said, to give clerks a per centage on work carried to the firm, and in this way Terwilliger's per centage was paid, regardless of whether he read proof or not. The charge that Terwilliger had altered the bills is not substantiated.

THE BENCH IMPUGNED.

In the Assembly to-day Mr. Alvard presented a memorial of the New York Bar Association making charges against certain judicial officers in New York, and asking for an investigation. Judges Barnard and Cardoza are mentioned as among those against whom charges are made. The memorial was referred to the Judiciary Committee and power given the members to go to New York to investigate.

ASSAULT.

A young lady was assaulted yesterday at noon by a robber in a Flat-bush car, near Prospect Park, he presenting a revolver and bowie knife and threatening to kill her, unless she gave him her purse. She jumped from the car, when the [illegible] driver and conductor, evid[illegible]y in league with the r[illegible]ber, drove furiously away.

MUST SEE HOW IT IS THEMSELVES.

The Brooklyn Committee of Fifty have been refused a written statement of the court records by Judge Walsh, but the latter invites them to spend a few weeks with him to see the workings of the court for themselves.

NO JURISDICTION.

Judge Barrett to-day decided that Judge Barnard, being a corporate member of the Tammany Society, had no jurisdiction, and his injunction against said society was therefore void.

REVENUE RAID.

The revenue officers raided on several illicit distilleries in the Fifth ward, Brooklyn, this afternoon, destroying several thousand dollars' worth of whisky mash, machines, &c. The officers were aided by the police.

TRUE BILL.

It is rumored that the Grand Jury found indicments against Harry Genet, Tom Fields, A. J. Miller and other "ring-ites" for frauds on the city.

HALL.

At a meeting of the Republican (Greeley) General Committee, last evening, resolutions were offered, but referred to a committee, requesting the Common Council to impeach Mayor Hall.

CLUBS.

The Americus Club has re-elected Wm. M. Tweed for President.

The New York Yact Club re-elected James Gordon Bennett, Jr., Commodore.

AQUATIC.

Henry Coulter, of Pittsburgh, accepts the challenge of the Biglin Brothers, of this city, for a thousand dollar boat race, in May, on the Schuylkill river.

THE RING FRAUDS.

Several bankers, including Mr. Belmont, were examined to-day by the Grand Jury relative to the ring frauds.

DYING.

Mr. Tooker, assaulted by highwaymen in Sackett street, Brooklyn, two nights ago, is dying.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

The New York papers teem with hostile comments and false reports in the case of the United States, which has been published in reference to the Alabama claim. The statement of the English case has not been published.

The Advertiser asserts that Chief Justice Cockburn, one of the arbitrators, will withdraw, and that the Government will repudiate the treaty of Washington, and a correspondent advocates this course and suggests the repudiation of the treaty of Ghent by the United States as a precedent.

The Daily News believes that the claims of the United States for indirect damages has been declared out of the question, and that this opinion is backed by the sentiment of the country. It is not known that any action has been taken by the Government on the subject.

Since its formation the institution has contributed to the saving of 20,752 shipwrecked persons, having lost only 22 persons from its own boats.

THE London Orchestra says Grau is at Vienna, busily engaged in completing the arrangements for a musical concert tour in America, and will take the field next spring with a splendid array of artistic talent. He has already signed engagements with the famous pianist Rubenstein, and the scarcely less famous violinist Wieniawsky, and is busily occupied in securing other artists of equal eminence.

THE House of Assembly in Newfoundland opened on the 18th ult., and the Governor, in his annual speech recommended the Permissive bill. The bill proposes to abolish the use of intoxicating liquors in the island, provided two-thirds of the population vote in favor of the bill. The election lately ended in Bonavista resulted in favor of the anti-confederates, which overthrows the idea of subjection to Canada.

"WHO," says the Saturday Review, "can enjoy a chat with a man who always talks of women as females, and of a [illegible] as an individual, who [illegible] never begins a thing, but al[illegible]ways commences it; who does [illegible] choose, but elects; who does not help, but facilitates; who does not supply, but caters; not buy, but always purchases; who calls a beggar a mendicant: with whom a servant is always a domestic, where he is not a menial; who does not say anything, but states it, and does not end but terminates it; who calls a house a residence, in which he does not live, but resides; with whom place is a locality, and things do not happen, but transpire?"

ENGLAND affords us an illustration of a new way to commit bigamy: Mr. Green, a London barrister, about a year ago publicly abjured Christianity and embraced Mohammedanism. He at once felt it to be his duty to have a helpmeet of the same faith, and having failed to convert his wife, he forsook her, and imported a genuine Mohammedan, whom he espoused and lived with in apparent peace until quite lately. It appears that, during all these extraordinary performances, he was not at all interfered with by the law. A few weeks ago Christianity reasserted its sway over the fickle mind of Green. Mohammedanism and his Mohammedan wife were abjured at one and the same time. The discarded believer in Allah has return[e]d to her native land, and Green, after his year of conscientious adultery, is said to b[e s]eeking a reconciliation with his former [w]ife.

THE CAPITAL.

The Whisky Interest.

BONDS CALLED IN.

WASHINGTON, February 2, 1872.

NEW YORK TO CHICAGO.

General Devin argued before the Judiciary Committee this morning in favor of a bill authorizing a through line railroad from New York to Chicago.

THE FISHERIES.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day decided to report to the House a bill providing for the carrying out of the clause in the subject of fisheries contained in the treaty of Washington, but without any recommendation in relation to it.

THE WHISKY INTEREST.

A delegation of Western distillers, who are here to look after their interests, had an interview with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in relation to the present tax on whisky. They express satisfaction at the present rate of taxation, but represented that the manner of raising the tax was hostile to the interests of distillers and the spirit trade generally. They are anxious that the various taxes should be consolidated into or paid at once when the whisky is removed from the distillery or warehouse.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

The area of lowest baromter will probably continue to move northeastward, leaving the coast off Cape Hatteras; north-east wind with snow prevail by Saturday morning from Massachusetts to Virginia, and threatening weather extend over lower lakes; north-west winds increase to brisk for a short time off the Carolina coast, and back to north-west, with clearing weather on Saturday very generally from Georgia to Michigan and westward to the Mississippi valley; cloudy and threatening weather extend from the upper Mississippi westward to the Rocky Mountains. Dangerous winds are not anticipated for any considerable portion of the Atlantic and Gulf coast.

BONDS CALLED IN.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day called in $1,750,000 of the three per cent. temporary loan, embracing the following numbers: $5,000, Nos. 3,202 to 3,414, and $10,000, Nos. 3,198 to 3,348. Interest on the above circificates will cease March 31st, after which time the they will be no longer available as a portion of the lawful money reserve in the possession of any National Banking Association.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

THE AMNESTY BILL.

The amnesty bill before the Senate excites more serious opposition than any measure recommended in the President's message has done thus far. Universal amnesty is a very bitter pill for Union men to swallow, but so much has already been granted in that direction, that aside from any just claim to clemency, it is doubtful whether as a mere act of partisan policy it will not be best to go the whole figure. Senator Chandler, yesterday, visited the Democratic argument as to the right of amnesty with some exceedingly ponderous blows. He was quite sarcastic on Senator Schurz wherever he assumed the ignorance of our leading statesmen on the subject of the spirit of American institutions, as well as upon his alleged Republican standing, but after all these side issues are settled between consistent and inconsistent Republicans I have little doubt that the amnesty bill will pass and receive the votes of many who cannot find justification on the grounds of right, but simply on the expediency of allowing the slightest excuse for the disloyal rage of the late rebels. Suppose Jeff Davis, A. H. Stevens et id omnes genus are returned to the Senate and House by the rebels, their frank utterance in Congress would be the greatest weakness of the opposition, and the best strength of the Republican party that could possibly be devised. Eleven years have so changed public sentiment that the echo of their stereotyped strains instead of falling harmoniously upon the listening ear of the Republic, would prove the death strain of the Southern goose. A few years at best, will render the Fourteenth amendment absolate from the death of the last man in his metaphorical ditch, four-fifths of his comrades being already there. Why then shall we longer prevent these Ku-Klux leaders from rushing on immediate destruction by showing their bloody hands to the country within the sacred precincts of our national legislative halls, as they now do in the halls of their own State Legislatures.

THE SPRING ELECTIONS.

New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode Island are leading off as usual in the Presidential campaign. The Republicans of New Hampshire, having endorsed Grant's administration, both parties feel that the President is on trial, and will put forth extraordinary exertions. New Hampshire is proverbially a close State, and the temperance and labor issues are used to divert votes, but the Republicans are sanguine of success.

SCHURZ VS. NYE.

The impromptu speech of Senator Nye in reply to the carefully prepared argument of Carl Schurz, is exciting considerable attention, and has been largely subscribed for as a campaign document. Great as Schurz is as a special pleader, the homely but common sense way in which Nye put the case is a complete antidote. Amnesty to all who desire it; who give any evidence of patriotism, or of accepting the situation—amnesty for all who are governed by the motto, "live and let live;" give general rights to the colored men, and to the Northern immigrant, but no amnesty for those who have murdered since the close of the war at least 10,000 people, obnoxious to them on account of color and political proclivities. This is probably the actual right and justice of the question aside from policy and expediency.

THE SYNDICATE IN THE HOUSE.

The debate thus far upon the question of power to place the late loan has been characterized by low comedian jokes on the part of Cox and others, but no argument worthy of refutation against the Secretary has been submitted. The Democrats seem to take the ground that the late law authorizing the conversion of the loan was designedly so framed that the conversion would necessarily be illegal; so that the Secretary would either have to break the law, or report to Congress that he could not place a loan subject to its provisions. This is what the Democrats confidently expected, and a success where the avenues to success were so carefully guarded, is so great a disappointment to the political enemies of the administration, that a feeble attempt to slander him is made. Well, there is nothing equal to success but success itself, and our Democratic friends will discover this after the November election, when President Grant will be regarded by them in a more favorable light.

AMERICAN SHIP BUILDING.

Secretary Boutwell appeared yesterday before the Commerce committee, and urged prompt legislation in favor of encouraging the building of American ships. He is opposed to granting registers to foreign built vessels, on the ground that it would not be an adequate relie[f] [illegible] to the ship building inter[illegible] of the country, but on the contrary, it would stimulate the enterprise of England in this branch of industry. He pressed upon the attention of the committee his proposition to pay first-class iron steamers for five years to come a subsidy of $13 per ton. He does not allege this to be the only measure of relief that is practicable, bpt desires action upon it as a perfectly feasible plan. Postmaster General Creswell was also before the House Appropriation Committee urging that the subsidy now given to the Pacific Mail steamers be doubled. Nothing definite has yet resulted from these ministerial conferences.

UTAH MURDERERS.

Judge McKean fears that Judge Lynch would assume his seat if he were to show himself unworthy of it by setting free the prisoners charged before him with murder, as suggested by District Attorney Bates.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Carnival Committee met here last evening. They are getting ready for another carnival at the Capitol a couple of months later than that of last year.

There will be a formal opening of the new Corn Exchange at Alexandira, Va., to-morrow. A large crowd will go from here.

Collector Casey, of New Orleans, has admitted that he committed an error in allowing Senators to use the revenue cutter Wilderness for preventing the presence of a quorum, though he alleges that he has done his duty as a citizen. AGATE.

MASSILLON.

Massillon & Cleveland Railroad.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]
MASSILLON, OHIO, Feb. 2, 1872.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Massillon and Cleveland Railroad was held here to-day. The following gentleman were elected a Board of Directors to serve during the ensuing year: J. N. McCullough, Thomas D. Messler, Geo. W. Cass, and Wm. Stewart, Pittsburgh; Kent Jarvis and John G. Warwick, Massillon; and D. P. Rhodes, Cleveland. Immediately after the election, the Board formally organized, and Thomas D. Messler was elected President, and F. M. Hutchinson Secretary and Treasurer. T.

SCRANTON.

The Recent Railroad Accident.

SCRANTON, February 2.—The following are the names of the passengers killed by the accident on the Lehigh Valley Railroad: Julius Smith, Mrs. Proctorius, wife of Professor Proctorius, of Wilkesbarre, Pa.; Miss Miller, and Wm. Stills, wife and daughter, of Reading, Pa.

The following is the list of the wounded: Hon. E. L. Dana, Sheriff Whittaker, Miss Troxell, Miss Spayd, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., Geo. Braden and a man named Wolf, of White Haven, John Cox, of Bethlehem, Conductor Seigfried, and a brakeman, name unknown. Miss Troxell, Wolf, Cox, and the conductor are considered seriously injured.

NEW YORK, February 2.—A Scranton special states that shortly after the removal of the bodies to the Mansion House three others died, one being a female school teacher. The accident was from a broken rail caused by frost. The engine and the two first passenger cars went over it safely, but the next car, breaking the coupling and precipitating down a steep embankment, dragged the next car after it. All the passengers but two were more or less injured. The company did everything it could for the comfort of the passengers after the accident. This is the first instance of life lost on the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

The details of the accident on the Lehigh Valley Railroad state that the anguish and dismay of the passengers who tumbled down the embankment was most fearful. The engineer, fireman and two or three others came to the rescue of the suffering. The first body drawn out from the fore part of the car was a colored gentleman whose features were almost destroyed, his face and forehead being all crushed up; though yet warm, he was quite dead. The feet of a colored woman were next seen extending from beneath the part of the car that was still burning, and in a few seconds the broken and charred timber was removed, and the dead body of a full grown person was exposed. Near this body was that of another colored female, daughter of the first mentioned, who was about thirteen years of age. In addition to the young girl, the colored woman had also an infant, which she was carrying in her arms when she entered the train, and search was at once instituted for it. Around on the opposite side of the car, about eight feet off, the little creature was found with its body curled up, crying out lustily for its dead mother. The child had received no injuries of any moment. While several of the crowd were engaged with the child, the dead bodies of two ladies were drawn out, both well dressed, of apparently respectable birth, but greatly disfigured about the head and neck by the severity of the wounds that had caused their death. Five dead bodies, stretched side by side on the snow, and each being soon soaking in the blood that was flowing from the open gashes and horrible bruises, presented a wild and indescribable picture.

The additional names of persons injured, of whom four whose names are not reported have since died, are as follows: J. H. Mellon, Towanda; John Lally, Pittston; Mrs. Montague, Brooklyn; Luther Woodward, Wilkesbarre; Kate Nearcast, Mahoning City; Jane Kirkpatrick, New York; Mr. H. Revel, Philadelphia; J. Yonker, (brakemen,) Philadelphia; Abel Kelsey, Hickory Run; Charles Timmons (engineer,) Pittsburgh; R. H. Geclick, Hickory Run; Aaron Whittaker, White Haven, Noah C. Mitterman, Bethlehem; Seigfried (conductor,) Easton.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—Arrived at Norfolk, Va., the steamship Peruvian, from Liverpool.

—The Presbytery of Chicago have now on deposit relief offerings of $31,436, which will be mainly devoted to the rebuilding of burned churches.

—The Central American News says: Two more Spanish gunboats have been ordered to watch the Virginius, and one American war vessel has been ordered to protect her.

—Sir Edward Thornton has been applied to from home to obtain copies of every newspaper, periodical and magazine published in the United States, to be placed on exhibition at the International Exposition to take place in England this year. Publishers who desire to avail themselves of this opportunity to be represented at the English Exhibition will address their publications, of some date in February, to Joseph Shillington, news agent, Washington, D. C.

—James Stough and his wife, and old and respected citizen of Richmond, Kentucky, became involved in a quarrel on Thursday, during which the husband plunged a clasp knife into the breast and abdomen of his wife fifteen or twenty times, no one being present to interrupt him in his murderous work. He was under the influence of liquor. The neighbors, being apprised of the affair by some children, went to the house and found Mrs. Stough lying in a pool of blood on the floor. She only lived long enough to tell who was her murderer. Jealousy is said to have been the original cause which led to the fatal results.

AN incident occurred on a San Francisco horse railroad, recently. An elderly and very portly lady passenger signaled for the car to stop at a certain street, but of course the rear platform went a little beyond the dry crossing. The old lady growled a great deal, and the conductor stepped off the car and offered his hand to guide her to the crossing, when, forgetting her exceeding weight, she sank bodily into his outstretched arms, and, as a consequence, the conductor sat quietly down in the mud, and the passenger fell over his head. He swore and she stormed, and the other passengers laughed, but being behind time, the conductor was obliged to go on his way, leaving the old lady trying to wipe the mud off her clothes with a seven inch square handkerchief.

[G]reat Farm For Sale,
AND
GRAIN AND LIVE STOCK.
I will offer at Public Sale, on the premises, at 9 o'clock A. M., sharp, on Thursday, February 15, 1872.
The farm on which I reside, situated in Smith township, Washington county, Pa., containing 190 ACRES.
The improvements consist of a large double two-story Frame House, of modern style, containing double portico, and completely finished from top to bottom; also Barn, Stable, Carriage House and other outbuildings, together with an orchard of Apples, Peaches and Pears. The land is well watered and timbered; the soil, which is of a deep, dry limestone quality, never fails of heavy crops, and for general fertility is not surpassed in any part of the far-famed county of Washington. The property is situated within one mile of Bulger Station, on the Panhandle Railroad, on the largely traveled highway, leading from Clinton via Candor, Bulger, Smith's store and Hickory to Washington, and is convenient to Churches, Schools, Stores, Postoffice and Express and Telegraph offices. The entire tract is under laid with a vein of coal, and is adapted to the gentleman of leisure, the farmer or the capitalist, the property offers peculiar attraction on account of its rare combination of advantages.

ALL THAT remains to complete our show of hospitality to the Duke Alexis is to send him up in a baloon, since he has been taken down into the earth, via the Mammoth cave of Kentucky.

IT SEEMS that rich developments of fraud in the conduct of the public affairs of Fayette county are about to be made. Inasmuch as that is a Democratic stronghold we should not marvel much if the tax-payers have been swindled in a systematic manner.

THE Chicago wedge for the opening of free trade, under pretense of charity, meets with heavy opposition from all quarters, and we do not think that it can be driven home. The precedent would be full of danger, and we hope Congress will act well and wisely in the matter by strangling the bill without any ceremony.

THE official vote of the last State election has just been published. The figures are as follows:

For Auditor General—David Stanton, (Republican) 284,097; William McCandless, (Democrat) 269,512; Barr Spangler, (Temperance) 3,132.

For Surveyor General—Robert B. Beath, (Republican) 287,045; Jesse H. Cooper, (Democrat) 266,735; E. A. Wheeler, (Temperance) 2,969.

For Constitutional Convention 316,097; against 69,715.

HARRISBURG is making a desperate effort to secure an appropriation for the erection of United States public buildings in that city. We can see no good reason why Congress should not spend a few hundred thousand dollars on Pennsylvania in this direction. Philadelphia does not contain a decent government building, Pittsburgh is compelled to put up with a miserable mass of stone thrown together to form a Custom and Court house, while Harrisburg fares much worse. Let our State delegates at Washington earnestly press our wants on Congress and the appropriations for all three cities will come.

AS WILL BE SEEN by a special dispatch, published elsewhere in this day's issue, the stockholders of the Massillon & Cleveland Railroad held their annual meeting at Massillon yesterday, and elected a Board of Directors. The character of the gentlemen elected is a sure indication that the corporation means business. The majority of them belong to this city, and are well known as being among the best railroad men in the country. Thomas D. Messler, Esq., was elected President, and from our personal knowledge of him, we can say no better selection could have been made. He is a thorough business and railroad man, and possesses many excellent personal accomplishments.

MOST of our exchanges are publishing letters from obscure individuals regarding a newly discovered cure for cancer in what is called "wild tea," such letters emanating from parties in this city. We unhesitatingly pronounce "wild tea" a fraud and are sorry that so many humane editors are being victimized by giving place to the certificates of the mountebanks who are engaged in swindling cancer afflicted people by selling clover as the "wild tea" which they advertise possessed with such wonderful curative qualities, at heavier prices than quinine brings. The men who would resort to such means to make money out of the misery of their fellow beings, and drag the press into helping on their villainy, should not be out of the penitentiary.

THE Postal Law regulating the pay of letter carrier's provides that their salaries shall not exceed $800 per annum, except that on receiving satisfactory evidence of their diligence, fidelity and experience in their business, the Post Master General is empowered to increase their pay to $1,000 per year. Here in Pittsburgh we have several very faithful, experienced and diligent carriers who receive but $900 per year and find it exceedingly difficult to support their families on that meagre sum after paying for their uniforms. The Post Master General has been importuned to increase their salaries but the request has received no attention. We think the laborer is worthy his hire, and that for the services rendered $1,000 is not one cent too much for our carriers. We hope their petitions will be listened to by the Department and full justice done them in the matter of wages.

WHEN the party to which the Post claims to belong, wins a victory, if ever so small a one as the election of a Democrat as ward constable, the community are treated to an exhibition of poultry in the neighborhood of Virgin alley, and yet our cotemporary winces under our expressions of satisfaction at our obtaining a full majority in the Legislature, and wresting the power in the Senate from the dishonest Democracy. The day before the election, our poultry showmen informed the public that they expected to expose their chickens on the day following the contest in the IVth Senatorial District, and their chagrin over their terrible disappointment is therefore not to be wondered at. They evidently feel as badly over the result as poor Aleck himself, and his next friend the "astute editor of the luminary." What a crowing there would have been by these two Dromios, had McClure secured the coveted prize, no matter by what means. A victory would have been claimed against Grant, and no questions asked.

IT has been the subject of much complaint among our lovers of art that the admission fees to first-class concerts and entertainments of musical character are invariably too high, affording opportunity to the rich alone to attend, and debarring hundreds from the privilege of feasting on good music. We believe that it is a mistaken policy on the part of managers to charge more than a reasonable fee, say one dollar admission, and fifty cents extra for reserved seats, for in so doing they would secure a much larger attendance and greater gross receipts than at higher figures, and consequently larger profits. Fine music is popular now, but if opportunities were given for patronage by the establishment of a reasonable scale of prices for admission, it would be much more so. If the visits of artists to our city were rare, the music lover could well afford to pay even as high as five dollars to be permitted to hear such as Wachtel, Nilsson, Pareppa-Rosa, Patti, and others sing, but as the concerts come in numbers and in rapid succession, the strain is made heavy on the man of moderate means. If the people would rebel so far as to absolutely refuse to attend concerts where fancy prices are charged for admission, a cheaper and more popular scale of rates might be secured.

NOT PROVEN.

We are by no means prepared to accept for truth, the wild and incoherent babblings of McClure and his friends, in reference to his claim that he was defeated "by great frauds." We shall only believe such charges when they shall have been proved by competent witnesses. It is quite common now-a-days, indeed it is almost always the case, for a defeated aspirant for office, to claim that fraudulent means were used by his opponents. We never yet heard of a successful candidate complaining of fraud, and yet we know some who could have proved it on their opponents. It does not always follow that those who make use of illegal means to carry an election are victorious, and yet the mad dog howl is almost uniformly started against the candidate who has received the certificate of election. We venture to affirm our belief, that if there was any repeating or ballot-box stuffing done at the late elections, it was not all done in the interest of one candidate. The almost superhuman efforts put forth by McClure's friends—Democrats, anti-administration Republicans, and the large class of soreheads generally—prove conclusively to our mind that such bitter partisanship as they exhibited would not stop at any possible thing to compass the defeat of Col. Gray—"the administration candidate"—according to his foes.

If it shall be proven hereafter that the friends of the Republican candidate used improper means wantonly to secure success, we shall denounce them with the strongest language at our command. We utterly and wholly repudiate and scorn such work, no matter what the stake to be won, and would apply the full rigor of the law upon any man who trifles in any way with the ballot box. No man can go farther in this, than we do; but we insist upon better evidence than the mere unproven charges of defeated candidates. We do not claim that there was no illegal voting done, as it is not necessary, the burden of the proof is with those who make the charges. McClure and his friends, apparently with a view to their present attitude, charged before the election that he was to be cheated at the polls. He had a remedy in the law to prevent such anticipated fraudulent proceedings. He did not make use of it, preferring doubtless to raise the accustomed cry of fraud, in the event of his defeat. It is the height of absurdity for him and his friends to claim that all the fraud (if there were any) was on the side of the majority. People out this way know of what stuff the Democrats and soreheads among us are made, and know full well that they are not all pious men. A few of them, at least might carry off a locomotive were it not too heavy to shoulder. We will put them against the world for illegal voting, and will wager that they will come out ahead of all competitors. But the Democrats of Philadelphia, for aught we know, may all be honest men, at least we shall so consider them, until they are proven otherwise. Is it too much to ask the same for the Republicans of the IVth district?

ENGLAND AND AMERICA.

The probability that England will be held to the full payment of the damages inflicted by the Rebel cruisers Alabama, Sumpter, Nashville and Florida on our commerce is causing somewhat of a flutter among financiers at government headquarters. From recent articles which have appeared from the critical pen of "Historicus" (Vernon Harcourt) we find that considerable uneasiness begins to be felt, and thinking men are already looking around to find where the increase of revenue, demanded in the event of an unfavorable decision for England by the Geneva conference, is to come from.

In 1851 the entire British revenues amounted to $275,000,000, and at that time were ample to meet all expenses of the government. In 1871—twenty years later—they were increased nearly $100,000,000, amounting to $361,000,000, and were all needed to meet the outlays required. Not one cent of this enormous revenue is applied to a reduction of England's debt, as not one cent of it can be paid off, from its nature as a permanent loan. It is a stationary burden which cannot be reduced, neither can the rate of interest be lessened. These facts, relative to the largely increased expenses of government are naturally exciting much attention, in view of the contingency, now almost a certainty, that a large addition to the debt must flow from the decision at Geneva, under the Washington treaty.

"Historicus," asks in connection with this subject some pertinent and troublesome questions, which will puzzle the Gladstone ministry, which claims to favor an economical government, to satisfactorily answer. True, the present ministry is not wholly responsible for the large increase in the annual expenditures, and yet it has authorized much of it; but in the event of a popular clamor, it would have to yield before such convincing rhetoric as Sir Charles Dilke uses from the stump, and "Historicus" emits from his keen pen.

Referring to the large increase of revenue and of expenses, in 1871 over those of 1851, "Historicus," through the Times asks: "What have you got for that extra money? Have you more comfort at home? Have you more influence abroad? Is your public service twice as well administered? Is your diplomatic service more expensive? Is your legal system better? I believe not. Is your colonial administration more costly? Not at all. In that period you have practically abolished the colonial system, and your Colonial Office is almost a sinecure. Does it go in the Home Office? If so, how? Is your army twice as numerous or twice as efficient? Are you more competent to indulge in the favorite dream of some people, that of fighting Europe all round? Does your navy exhibit less 'alacrity in sinking'?" One-fourth of the whole revenue was "muddled away," he said. The increase of pauperism could not account for it, because the disbursements for maintenance of the poor came, not out of the national but the local funds.

Looking to the immediate future the London News says: "It is to be feared that the Alabama claims will cause a serious increase of taxes in future years," and it is already anticipated, even by the London Times, that the decision at Geneva will "make the British Government responsible, first, for the direct losses inflicted on American commerce by the Alabama, the Sumpter, the Nashville, the Florida, and others; and next, for the indirect losses which the United States Government assumes to be due to the operations of those vessels. These last consist in the national expenditure in the pursuit of those cruisers, the loss in the transfer of the American commercial marine to the British flag, the enhanced payments of insurance, and finally, most portentious of all, the prolongation of the war, and the addition of a large sum to the cost of the war for the suppression of the rebellion."

What a sad contrast the present financial outlook in England affords with the present promising condition of our resources, revenue, debt and expenditures. With them taxes, expenses and national debt are all increasing, with no proportionate increase of regular revenue. To meet large expenses will require the laying of additional taxes on the industries of the country. With us the very reverse is the case. Our debt is gradually being diminished, as is also the interest on what remains. Our revenues are largely increasing, notwithstanding over eighty millions of taxes have been taken off. A further reduction of taxation, probably amounting to fifty millions, will be made by the present Congress. With the reduction of taxes, debt and interest, comes the reduction also of annual expenses. Our present requirements to meet all engagements, with sufficient surplus to reduce the debt fully fifty millions yearly, are not so great as those of Great Britain. Theirs must increase, ours will from year to year grow less.

In such reflections the true lover of our country cannot but rejoice, and take new courage. Our future is bright with promise and peace; plenty and prosperity everywhere abound. We trust that nothing shall occur to obstruct or burden the future of our glorious free land; but that through education of the masses, economy and wisdom in our national councils, and the untiring industry and inventive genius of the people, we shall ere long stand at the head of the list of the enlightened nations, and prove a pattern for all to imitate. The sneer of the powdered aristocrat, which formerly was of common occurrence, when the name of Republican America was mentioned in England, has now given place to the pungent utterances of "Historicus", and others who dare to point out wherein we excel, and lead the old powers of Europe.

Is it not a proud satisfaction of our honored President, that since his elevation to office the country has succeeded beyond the hopes of the most sanguine? Before the great historical results of our progress as a nation, the puny efforts of the cynic must ever pale and fade away. As a great, prosperous and powerful nation, we need not fear comparison with the proudest.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Among the pulpit speakers of the day, who has attained a wide reputation, is the Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, of the Brooklyn Free Tabernacle. His congregations reach as high as four thousand people, besides he speaks to a vast audience through three or four religious journals by his sermons and addresses. Many of our readers will be interested to learn of his style of conducting service. The opening services are brief, pointed and impressive, and the singing is congregational in the fullest sense. His sermons are clear, methodical, scriptural and eminently spiritual, disarming the audience of a disposition for literary criticism, and sending them home thinking more of their souls than of oratory. The Christian Intelligencer thinks the secret of the Tabernacle's power evidently lies in his natural endowments, his bold and faithful Gospel, and still more in his blood-earnestness.

At a meeting for the promotion of Prison Reform, at New York city, held last week, Hon. Horatio Seymour, so widely known in political circles, closed an address by avowing his interest in "a religion which teaches the need of a Spirit to guide, a Saviour to atone, and a merciful God to forgive manifold sins and transgressions." The audience received the sentiment with a storm of applause.

The American Congregational Union have made appropriations to assist sixteen churches in the erection of their houses of worship. Fifteen more churches are also soliciting aid. The Union already stand pledged to forty churches to an amount, in excess of present receipts, of over fifteen thousand dollars.

In England some of the clergy of the English National church, conduct revival meetings, under the name of "Church Missions," resulting in great good. The Archbishop of York recently presided at one of these missions, and expressed his approval of them. We suppose this custom will ere long be introduced in the Protestant Episcopal Church in this country.

An Association of Rhode Island Baptists have purchased a tract of land on the Narragansett, near Providence, to hold religious services, social gatherings, etc. The ground is to be prepared like the Methodist grove at Martha's Vineyard, the great camp-meeting watering-place.

According to reports just made by the Presbyterian Hospital Finance Committee, subscriptions have been secured by Dr. Saunders for the hospital, to the amount of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The Western Christian Advocate, an official organ of the Meteodist Episcopal Church, in reply to the assertion of the Advance, of Chicago, it would almost as soon think of "falling from grace as believing in it," says that "Methodists believe in falling from grace just like Calvinists believe in stealing—that it is a possible thing to do, but very wrong."

Frequent paragraphs appear in religious journals commending the envelope system of raising funds to pay church expenses, which is very well, but however much merit there may be in it, the plan must be worked patiently faithfully and vigorously.

The last Presbyterian General Assembly adopted a Sustentation Scheme for aiding feeble churches to support their pastors. The plan is for all pastors to secure contributions for the Fund equal to the one-twentieth of their own salaries. The scheme is to raise all less salaries to one thousand dollars, including manse rent, the Church giving at least half that sum. This is the first systematic movement in the Presbyterian Church towards establishing a standard average salary for feeble Churches.

A Presbyterian weekly journal prints a definition between "Old School" and "New School" Presbyterians, which may be new to some, and we reproduce the item: "The Old School Presbyterians sin as soon as they are born, and the children of New School Presbyterians as soon as they know how."

A Methodist Episcopal minister adopts the following method to secure good attendance at the means of grace: He has enrolled in alphabetical order the names of the members of the society. At the close of the prayer-meeting he silently marks opposite each name present or absent, as the case may be, and then calls upon the absentees. In many cases he simply raps at the door and inquires if any are sick, or he missed Brother A., or Sister B., or the children, at the prayer-meeting. The effect may be judged—the meetings are full.

Calvary Protestant Episcopal church, at Louisville, Ky., has been purchased by the Methodist Episcopal Church, at a cost of thirty thousand dollars, which has all been provided for, except five thousand dollars, by special gifts, and when the church is dedicated, the entire sum will be paid. Rev. Dr. J. McKendree Rielly, formerly pastor of Christ M. E. church of this city, is to be the pastor.

It has been decided by the Protestant Episcopal Church to district the State of Texas into three dioceses. Part of the State will remain, as heretofore, under the charge of Bishop Gregg. The other portion will be in charge of two missionary bishops to be chosen.

A distinguished Protestant educator, in a lengthy paper, the underlying thought of which is, that the schools of the Roman Catholic Church are the main popular agency upon which she depends for the propogation of her faith and the multiplication of her agencies.

The Centennial movement among the members of the Reformed (Dutch) Church is moving along quite successfully, with indications that the amount to be secured, will be forthcoming before the year closes.

The Christian Union of last week announces that seventy-three thousand copies are printed for regular subscribers. This enormous circulation shows the value of the paper. We regard the Christian Union as one of the ablest religious papers of the age, and it is worthy of a large circulation.

PITTSBURGH, February 2, 1872.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Myself with many others are watching the contemplated repeal of the Fee Bill. It is well known that the "Fee Bill" lately hatched by a paid attorney and signed by all the bar, is intended to raise a cry for the repeal of the present bill, and give us in reality no Fee Bill at all. If the lawyers are as they represent, trying to Legislate in favor of the poor man why do they not insert a few lines wiping out the present unjust taxing of four dollars on each suit brought. Do not all attorneys charge their client for work done? Then where is the justice of this little four dollar argument coming in as part of the cost. Again, are there not plenty of lawyers who always advise their clients to not settle differences, but sue at once for the express purpose not only of getting a retainer, but have their name marked opposite a four dollar charge. If the Fee Bill is to be amended, by all means let our Representives see to the four dollar charge.

POOR MAN.

SEVERAL of the most intelligent and experienced officers of the Royal Engineers of the English army have been commissioned to go to Ephesus to examine the excavations now in progress there, under the direction of Mr. Wood, in the name of the administrators of the British Museum. The intention is to uncover and bring into modern daylight the celebrated Temple of Diana, of which a certain portion has already been unearthed. The Sultan has given a special permission for the continuation of these explorations. The engineers are the same who were employed in uncovering the statue of King Mausolus, at Halicarnassus, and in unearthing the famous sculptures of Cyrene.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

THE New York Tribune says:—The great Napoleon angrily uttered his feeling for French economists of the Free Trade school by saying that they would grind a country to powder with their senseless theories. A Free Trader declaiming in New York against the American Tariff can clearly see that the production of pig iron on Lake Superior employs a large population in mining ore, in cutting wood, in making charcoal, in quarrying stone, in hauling ores and fluxes, in conveying by wagon the metal to shipment, in building and sailing schooners and propellers, in raising, at different points along the breadth of country 2,000 miles long, breadstuffs, grains, vegetables, and fruits, to feed the furnace-men, miners, and carriers, beside a crowd of smiths, wheelwrights, and machinists—and that it employs in part the capital, machinery, and operatives, of numerous distributing railroads. He can clearly see that that single industry is like the delta of a river in a plain, fertilized and blessed by the current as it flows. But, belonging to a school which grinds to powder with senseless theories, he will deny the logic of the facts he looks on, and scream for Free Trade in British Pig iron. And he will work to strike with the lightnings of idleness and bankruptcy that chain of linked industries from end to end. To what result? The production of American pig metal, which kept down the price of British in our markets, being crushed out, we shall pay higher than ever for pig iron brought here, not in American, but in British ships, consigned, not to American, but to British merchants, and paying commissions, storage, and profits, not to Americans, but to foreigners, who talk quite like Lord Dundreary and count the years or the months to their going 'ome with fortunes made off the Yankees.

HAVING heard of the "great raft" in the Red River, since our geography days, we are all apt to suppose we know all about it. We are well aware that it is a mass of drift wood, completely obstructing navigation at the point where it covers the water with its countless trunks of forest trees. We know that the river passes under this mass as if it were a bridge; and we remember that in 1833, when the raft was one hundred and twenty four miles long, the general government began removing it, but after working at it for twenty-two years, abandoned the attempt as impracticable, and confined its efforts to the opening of some of the lateral channels or bayous. We may know all this, but still be ignorant of one of the most curious characteristics of the great raft, which is that it, unlike rafts in general, moves up the river against the current instead of down. The movement is very slow, being but a mile or two in a year. The explanation of this retrograde movement of an apparently stationary mass is simple enough. The logs of the lower end of the raft are continually broken away and carried off by the floods and freshets. Thus the raft, always falling away at one end and growing at the other, gradually moves up the river, and it is calculated that it has moved since its forming about four hundred miles. Scientific writers have suggested the idea that this vast mass of timber, after lying in the old bed of the river for quite a number of ages, will become a coal bed. But when the Red River country becomes thickly settled, this enormous collection of driftwood may be utilized in some way or other, and thus incalculably distant generations may be cheated out of many a good coal fire.

PROFESSOR LOW, of Cornell College, has made a very important discovery, which should at once attract the attention of dairymen everywhere. The Professor, having occasion to subject some cream to microscopic tests, found it full of living organisms not usually to be seen in cream. He at once traced the cream to the particular cows which had given it, and found that they had been suffered to slake their thirst in a stagnant pool located in a muddy swale. He then tested some of the water and found it filled with the same organisms. He furthermore tested blood from these cows, and found the same filthy organisms, and upon mixing some of the water with milk, discovered that these organisms multiplied almost indefinitely. This fact being established beyond question, it is certainly reasonable to suppose that parties partaking of this kind of milk must be liable to have their blood filled with these organisms, and thereby to become inoculated with disease. The cows from which the milk was taken were found, upon thermometer tests, to be hot and feverish. Is it not possible that malignant fevers and epidemics may arise from this fact? The accuracy with which the tests have been made at least warrants the supposition, and dairymen should give the matter their earnest attention.

IT is only a few days since we heard the sad news of the missionary who had gone to Hindostan to convert the natives, and had been converted himself, much to the disgust of the Association which had paid the expenses of his voyage. Two more unfortunate results of the zeal for proselyting have come to our notice: A young Hindoo was brought to London, and was there taught Christianity, with a view to using him afterwards as a missionary. Unfortunately, after studying Christianity, he studied infidelity. The latter conquered, and he has gone back to Hindostan a thorough paced disbeliever, bent on propagating his views. The other instance is also from England: At a meeting of a Society for the Conversion of the Jews, in Birmingham, one of the speakers challenged any Hebrew present to a discussion. An Israelite accepted the defiance, and, in a prolonged debate, met his opponent. The large audience decided by vote that he was victor. Encouraged by this triumph, the Jews have organized an Anti-Conversion Society, and the contest is fierce. All the presses of Birmingham are printing pamphlets and tracts, and all the boys of Birmingham are busily employed in distributing them. As not a single conversion has yet been reported, the Hebrews are triumphant.

IN AN article on Free Love and Female Suffrage in the Independent, Mrs. Swisshelm says: The first important triumph of the woman's rights discussion was won in the winter of '47-48, when Pennsylvania passed a law allowing married women to own property. Among the advocates of that measure there was no Free Lover; and among the arguments used no attack on marriage. This grand step had been taken, Judge Hurlbut's unequaled and unanswerable argument published and extensively circulated, the American and Foreign Anti Slavery Society fully committed to the equality of the sexes, Abby Kelly and the Misses Grimke fairly recognized as political lecturers, Harriet Martineau and Mrs. Mowatt as political writers, Mrs. Nichols and myself as political editors, and thousands of good and true Christian men and women enlisted as the friends of woman's enfranchisement, before Free Lovers discovered the fancied opportunity of aiding their cause by attaching it to ours. Our wheat was in the blade before these tares appeared; our crop promised a bountiful harvest before the thorns and thistles which follow all cultivation of the ground, physical or mental, sprang up in our field.

THE SUGGESTION of Secretary Belknap, that a prison be provided for soldiers serving under sentences of military courts, would be a good one if the prison were likely to be used for that purpose alone. There are now nearly four hundred (384) such prisoners, whose terms of imprisonment average a little more than four years each. To bring these men under the reformatory influences of a single prison would be more humane than to leave them scattered here and there in guard-houses, subject to neglect, attention, kindness or cruelty, according to the passing temper of their guards. But if a national prison is once established, there will be a constant temptation to make a convenience of it in other directions. Congress might pass laws by which offenders against the civil law should be economically provided for under the same roof; the State institutions which now guard prisoners of the United States, subject there, like other prisoners, to the care of local inspectors and other officers, might be deserted, and the central government would have one more source of independent power. Let us have no national Bastile, where executive officers can become familiar with the forms of personal tyranny.

DIRECT communication between Norway and America will be opened on the first of April by a line of new Norwegian steamers. Hitherto travelers between the two countries have come by way of England or Hamburg, but this new and direct route will be more convenient and save them both time and expense. The new Norwegian line will, in point of both security and comfort, bear comparison with the English and German American lines. At present the Norwegians stand in the front rank among seafaring nations. As regards tonnage, the Norwegians are the fourth nation in the world—only the English, the Americans and the Germans being in advance of them in that respect; but, when we consider the proportion between tonnage and population of the various countries, Norway stands at the head, having one-half ton afloat for every inhabitant, while even England has only one-fifth. Thus the Norwegians at the present time vindicate their old prestige in regard to navigation.

IN a paper by Mr. Plumb upon the effect of increasing the height of blast furnaces in England, he remarks that in the midland districts there were four old furnaces, built half a century ago, each of them forty-five feet high. A new furnace had recently been built sixty feet high, in the place of one of these, while there had been an addition of fifteen feet to the height of another—so that there are now two furnaces of sixty feet each, and two of forty-five feet, working side by side. A comparison of the results of the two series shows that a considerably increased amount of iron has been the consequence of the elevation in height of the furnaces, and that in districts where tender cokes were used, a height of sixty feet might be safely obtained, but perhaps not exceeded.

THE Virginia Legislature is studying economy, and proposes to strike out $75,000 a year in the expenses of the Judiciary. A bill has been framed which cuts down the importance of the county courts and greatly limits the salaries of the judges. No juries are to be summoned to any term of the county court; no civil issues, except certain motions, are to be tried; and when the person accused of a misdemeanor demands a jury, the plan, if fully carried out in the Legislature, will provide that the sheriff shall summon a jury from the bystanders. The effort seems to be to render the forms of justice as primitive as may be, and yet effective to meet all the dewands of the time.

THE London Spectator says of Thomas Nast that "there is something of Hogarth's power about his sketches," and "ability for portraiture equal to 'H. B.'s,'" with "many signs of an imagination which can grow hot with righteous wrath." On the other hand it thinks "his merely humorous designs are comparatively weak in idea," "his sketches of animals are atrociously bad, and his sentimentalities are unpardonably feeble." "It is only when Mr. Nast gives the gloomy side of his imagination its swing that he rises to his full power."

INWARD INJURIES.

Those outward manifestations of frail and departing health are easily detected; in truth, outward signs are often marks of an inward disease. The pale face, the lustreless eye, the sunken and hollow cheek, with now and again the circumscribed spot, which, whilst it may not like that on Cæsar's face, denote anger, but it does denote something lacking harmony in the inward workings of the human constitution. How quickly does your ear catch the irregular strokes of the pendulum of the clock which indicates something wrong in its internal workings; but how vastly more certain, and of infinitely more importance, is the muffled beat of the heart, or the gurgling sound of the lungs, in warning us of the faulty performance of those organs in the human organism. When to this is added the cough, the pains in the chest, the difficult breathing, the livid color of the lips, the hectic fever and the night sweats; what more can be wanting to apprise us of approaching danger. Take Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Remove the peccant matter before the wheels of life are loaded until they revolve no longer in unison with that beautiful harmony of health which the God of Nature meant for all.

Sold at $1.50 per bottle; 4 for $5, at 167 Liberty street. Dr. Keyser's private office for Lung examinations in the rear. Office hours from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 3 to 6, except Sundays and Tuesdays.

CAUTION.

The efficacy of PANCREATIC EMULSION and PANCREATINE and its preparations in the treatment of Consumption, Indigestion and Wasting Diseases, depending entirely upon their purity and strength, Messrs. SAVORY & MOORE caution the public against inferior preparations, which are calculated to cause disappointment and to injure the reputation these medicines have acquired. Purchasers should see that each bottle has the names of Savory & Moore and their trade mark.

Sold in Pittsburgh only at

DRUG STORE and PERFUME and PATENT MEDICINE DEPOT,
Corner of Penn and Sixth streets (late St. Clair).

FRAUDULENT MISREPRESENTATIONS.

Among the pernicious frauds of the period, there is one which especially deserves the reprehension of all who place a proper value on health and life. The swindle referred to consists in the attempts of irresponsible parties, in different sections of the United States, to force upon the market vile astringent compounds manufactured out of damaged or worthless drugs and refuse liquor, as preparations possessing the rare medicinal virtues of the most popular and efficacious of all vegetable tonics and alteratives—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

The concocters of these "local bitters" are, in the truest sense of the phrase, public enemies. Their fiery potions inflame the stomachs, stupefy the brains, and shatter the nerves of those who are unwise enough to accept them as substitutes for the famous Vegetable Invigorant, that for twenty years has been known throughout the Western Hemisphere as a standard article.

The fame of Hostetter's Bitters as a health-preserving, vitalizing medicine, is as wide as the world, and the miserable attempts of needy nostrum-mongers to supplant it would be treated with silent contempt, were it not that serious consequences sometimes follows the use of the nefarious compounds in question. Whoever recommends any of them as remedies for Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation, Intermittent Fever, Rheumatism, or any other complaint for which Hostetter's Bitters is a known specific, is guilty of a moral, if not a legal misdemeanor. At this season, when the sun is releasing from the earth, in the form of unwholesome vapors, the active principle of disease, a course of Hostetter's Bitters will be of the utmost service to persons with feeble constitutions.

THE GARDNER
Fire Extinguisher.
(Patented February 14th, 1871.)
MANUFACTURED BY THE Philadelphia Fire Extinguisher Co.
1306 CHESTNUT STREET.
GEO. B. COLLIER, President. D. B. WAGGENER, Secretary.
These machines are unquestionably the most effective ever invented. Introduced to the public during the past year, they have met with unprecedented success. Having four times the capacity of other Extinguishers and yet weighing twenty pounds less, they attract much attention, and are rapidly superseding all other machines.
They are always ready, act instantly and never fail. Indubitable evidence will be given all purchasers that the Gardner infringes no other patent, and we hereby challenge all who assert that we are trespassing on their rights to bring the matter to a legal test.
The threats of a rival Company are all idle, and we hereby promise FULL PROTECTION to all purchasers.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, February 2, 1872.

A dispatch from Warner, (N. H.,) says: The well-known woolen manufacturing firm of Adams & Bartlett, who has, it was believed been doing a prosperous business here for twelve years, is reported as failed. Mr. Bartlett, the senior member of the firm, recently died. This is said to have hastened the collapse, which in any event must have come sooner or later, as their liabilities are eighteen thousand, with assets of about seven thousand.

—The New York World says the advance in the price of gold yesterday was entirely speculative and without any legitimate basis to rest upon. The market is said to have been taken in hand by one of the largest stock speculators who sold out and went short of stocks recently. The speculator is trying to buy back the stocks he sold, and in order to do so, at about present prices, has entered into a gold movement by buying largely to run the price upwards, in the expectation of making money scarce, and thus depressing the stock market. The movement, so far as buying the gold at advanced prices is concerned, has been a success, but it is probable the price will decline sharply when the gold is sold.

—The New York Journal of Commerce says: We have now completed the tables for the last year (1871,) and present the summary as one of the most interesting ever laid before our readers. The total imports are almost three hundred and eighty-five million dollars a larger sum by seventy millions than ever before landed here in a single year. The year 1870 was the largest previous record, and the increase now exhibited was not reckoned upon even the most extravagant estimates.

—Trafton's last (N. Y.) Circular has the following: From the western part of this State we learn that farmers hold very liberal supplies, but stocks in millers' hands are limited, prices of flour on the seaboard being relatively lower than wheat. At the west farmers hold a smaller proportion of their last crop than in the State, having sold freely early in the autumn. At the southwest the stocks of wheat are very limited, from the sudden changes in the weather, and the farmers feel much apprehension for the future. At the northwest spring wheat is finding a better market at St. Louis than on the lakes, and much of that accumulated there is likely to be diverted to the south. Since writing the above we have received from a valued correspondent in the interior of Pennsylvania, the following: "Our crops look very bad, the complaint from the entire interior of the State is, that the growing wheat crop is very seriously damaged; to a great extent frozen out, and in a great many places the plant is killed from some cause not accounted for; from present appearances the report is universal, and a very small yield is expected."

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, February 2, 1872.

ASHES—Reported firm but unchanged. Common Soda, 4 cts; refined, 4⅛@4¼; Nitrate Soda, 5; Pots, 10; Pearls, 11.

APPLE BUTTER—Common to fair 50@55 cts per gallon, prime to choice, 60@65.

APPLES—Quiet but steady, with regular sales at $3,00@3,50 per bbl for common to fair, add $4,00@4,50 for prime to choice. The receipts continue light, but the supply is fully up to the demand.

BUTTER—There is no falling off in the inquiry for the best grades, and we continue to quote prime to choice, in small packages, at 25@27, and medium to good at 20@23. The lower grades continue dull, and the stock of this kind is large and increasing.

BROOM CORN—No improvement, and, what is worse still, but little prospect of any—there is not enough doing to establish quotations.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is quiet and dull but prices are not quotably lower, 4 cts per pound.

BEANS—We can report a fair local demand and regular sales of small lots at $2@2,50 per bushel, according to quality.

CARBON OIL—Is quiet and unchanged; standard brands in car load lots, 21 cts—usual advance for small lots.

CIDER—Sales at $5@10 per bbl, according to quality and size of barrel.

CORN MEAL—Is quoted in a jobbing way at $1,65 per cwt or 80 cts per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of eastern at $13@16 per bbl, as to quality; Sackett's still quoted at $17.00.

CANDLES—Mould, 12 cts; Star, 21.

CANNED GOODS—Peaches, $6,00@6,50 per case; Tomatoes, $4,25@4,50; Winslow's Corn, $5,25@5,50.

CONCENTRATD LYE—Quoted at $6 per case.

COUNTRY LARD—8@8½ cts per lb.

CHEESE—Is firm at the recent advance, and the arrivals for some weeks past have been light. We continue to quote at 16@16½ for Goshen; 15@15½ for Factory and 14@14½ for Dairy.

EGGS—Continue slow, but, as the receipts are only fair and the stock by no means large, prices are still maintained—dealers generally quote fresh at 30, though it is rumored that there have been some sales as low as 28 cts. However, there is no disposition to hold, as it is generally conceded that prices must go lower, and, that too, before long. Pickeled eggs, 20@25, as to quality.

FLOUR—Is still reported firm in the west, but dull in New York, and it is higher relatively in many of the western markets than it is at the seaboard, and the same is true of wheat. Taking the price of wheat as a basis, the mills here should be able to sell flour as low as the Cincinnati millers, and, at the same time, to undersell dealers here, who draw their supplies from that and other points in Ohio and Indiana—No. 1 red is bringing fully as much in Cincinnati and Cleveland as it is here. We continue to quote, in a jobbing way, from store, at $7,25@7,50 for fair to good spring extras; $7,75 for choice Minnesotas, and $7,50@7,75 for good to choice red winter wheat. Rye Flour, $5,50.

FRUITS—Peaches dull; halves, 10@10½; mixed, 8@8½; quarters, 7@7½; peeled, 15@20. Apples, 6½@7½ for common to fair, and 8@8½ for prime to choice. Blackberries, 14@15. Prunes, 10 cts. Layer Raisins, $3 per box, for old, and $3,75 for new; Valencia Raisins, 13c per lb.

GRAIN—The receipts and offerings of Wheat in this market continue very light and with a steady milling demand prices are steady but unchanged, $1,50@1,55 for fair to prime red and 3@5 cts more for white, according to quality. The feeling is becoming pretty general that the wheat in the ground has been more or less injured by the hard freezing weather, and it is this as much perhaps more than anything else that is keeping it in first hands—farmers are disposed to hold a part of their last year's crop at least until it can be determined how badly the incoming crop has been damaged. Oats steady with a fair trade but prices are unchanged; 50@51 cts by the car load and 53@55 in a jobbing way; some dealers are expecting a further advance, but it is generally believed that for the present at least, the top has been touched and this is based on the fact that at present prices, oats are much higher relatively than corn, and there is no getting over the fact that the latter is much cheaper for feeders than the former. Rye is quiet, and so far as we can learn, unchanged; 93@95 buying and 98@$1,00 selling. Corn is reported steady but there is no improvement in prices; for some days past the bulk of the sales, by the car load, have been at 58 on track and 60 cts in elevator though some holders are asking 60 and 62, and there is little or no margin at the former quotations. The feeling in Barley is a little better, as a number of lots have been purchased and taken off the market recently, but thus far there has been no improvement in prices.

GROCERIES—We intimated in our last that the feeling in Coffees was not as rampant as it was last week, and that some of the importers would not object to unloading if they could only do so quietly and without depressing the market; later advices from the east fully confirm all that we have written on this point. While, so far as we can learn, there has been no decline, it would seem that importers and other large holders are apprehensive of one, hence their anxiety to realize; however, if there should happen to be a break it will fall on the jobbers all over the country as well as the importers, as they, too, are pretty well stocked, having bought largely within the past sixty days. There has been no particular change in the position of Sugars for several days; refined goods are reported in limited supply, but there is no improvement whatever in prices. Choice New Orleans Molasses firm and higher at the point of purchase. Syrups firm, and some well-known brands, including H. & E., have been advanced 2@4 cts per gallon in the east within the past ten days.

SUGARS—Refined—Standard Hards, 13¼; A. 12¾; B, 12¾; Ex. C, 12¾; C. Yellow, 12¼. Porto Rico Sugars—Choice, 11; Prime, 10¾; Good, 10. Demarara, 11¾@12. New Orleans—fair, 10; good, 10¾; prime, 11; choice, 11¼.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 26; Prime, 25; Good, 24. Fair, 23@23¼. Java, 28@30. Laguayra, 25@26. Mocha, 45. Roasted Coffee, pure, 28. Lower grades, 25@26.

SYRUPS—Havemyer & Elder's, 60. White Honey, 60. Lovering's, 60. Durant's, 60. Sugar Drips, 75; Brune's, 60; other grades, 48@60. New Orleans Molasses, old, 50. New crop, 60.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9¾; Good, 8¾; Fair, 8¼. Rangoon, 8. Patna, 8¾.

SPICES—Pepper, 24. Allspice, 18. Cassia, 50. Cloves, 25. Nutmegs, $1,40.

HONEY—Sales at 25@30 cts.

HOMINY—Sales at $4,50 per bbl to the trade and $5 in a jobbing way.

HAY—The market is rather firmer and more active, but prices are not quotably higher; we can report sales of several car loads of baled at $25@27,50 per ton.

LARD OIL—Is firmer and tending upward; No. 1 Extra, in a jobbing way, 85@87 cts.

LIME—Perrysburg white, $2,00@2,25 per bbl; Cleveland $2,25; Eastern, $1,75.

MILL FEED—Sales, in a jobbing way, from store, at $22@23 per ton for Bran; $25@26 for Seconds; $35@36 for Middlings, and $40 for Oil Meal.

ONIONS—In fair supply and limited demand; quoted at $2@3 per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—Sales in a jobbing way, in store, at 75@85 cts per bushel, as to quality.

POULTRY—Good, fresh receipts in fair demand at full prices; dressed Chickens, 13@14 cts; and Ducks and Turkeys, 16@18. Geese, very dull.

PROVISIONS—Plain Bacon Shoulders, 7¾; sugar cured shoulders, 8¾; ribbed sides, 8; short ribbed, 8¾; clear, 9; sugar cured hams, 13. Dried Beef, 16½. Mess Pork, $14,50@15,00. Ham Sausage, 11. Lard: in tierces, 9¾; in kegs and buckets, 10¾@11.

RAGS—Sales, 4@4¼ cts per lb.

SALT—Is quoted at $1,85 per bbl, by the car load, and $2 in a jobbing way.

SHAKER CORN—13@14 cts per lb.

SEEDS—Clover Seed is quiet and unchanged at $6@6,50. Timothy Seed is scarce with some inquiry; sales of small lots at $3,75@4,00. Flaxseed, $1,80.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

As will be seen, by reference to the report of sales below annexed, there was a fair volume of business in crude irons, during the past week, and standard forge irons have been advanced a dollar per ton and can now be fairly quoted at $41, the highest point touched for some time. In regard to the future course of the market, operators, as might be expected, conflict considerably in their views; some are disposed to think that the limit has been reached, that any further advance is improbable, while others contend, still higher prices will prevail. The enhanced cost of the article, however, does not seem to curtail the demand, as there was fully as much sold this week at $41 as there was last week at $40, and the mills seem to be taking all that offers, both for present and future delivery.

We intimated in our report of last week that an early advance in finished irons and nails was probable; it has taken place sooner than anticipated. At a meeting of the Western Iron Association, on Thursday, representing Wheeling, Cleveland and Cincinnati, the price of bar iron was advanced two-tenths of a cent per pound, making the card rate the even four cents per pound, and nails were put up to $4,75, an advance of 25 cents per keg. Finished irons have been too low for some time past, and the advance, therefore, was not unexpected.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, February 2, 1872.

Trade continues very quiet and the market is devoid of anything new or important. So far as we can learn, however, manufacturers generally are satisfied with the situation, contending that the depression which is now prevailing augurs well for the future; that it will tend to reduce the stock of refined and increase the supply of crude, and in the end equalize prices, as the latter has been for a year or more past higher relatively than the former. Refined was quoted to-day at 21¾ for 1st and 22 for last half of February and very dull. Crude also weak and lower, $3,77½@3,80 per bbl at Parker or $4,27½@4,30 delivered here.

River Intelligence.

The weather yesterday was mild and pleasant; thermometer at 4 p. m., 34. According to the ground-hog sign, we are to have six weeks more of cold weather, as he could not help seeing his shadow yesterday; however, this ground-hog sign does not always prove correct.

—A St. Louis special to the Cincinnati Commercial says: Captain Isaac H. Jones of the Dexter, came up from Belmont this morning. He reports only 6 feet of water between Columbus and Memphis, and falling rapidly. Captain Jones thinks the Chas. Bodmann will get through the gorge, as she is but a short distance from the lower edge of it, and can cut her way out. The Great Republic is a mile higher up, and will not be able, it is thought, to move until the weather moderates or the river rises. Considerable discussion is going on here among boatmen in regard to the charter of the Great Republic. The knowing ones say, that having a good thing, she should have been satisfied with it, and obeyed orders to the letter, as in doing so she would have fulfilled her part of the contract and thrown all responsibility on the Duke. However this may be, it teaches a lesson that should not be forgotten by boatmen. Captain Thos. Morrison, one of her owners, went down to Belmont, this morning, to see if anything could be done to relieve the boat from her very disagreeable position.

—The Evansville Journal, of Tuesday, says: This is the third freeze up during this winter. The last instance of the kind was in 1856, when the river froze over solid with clear, transparent ice, we are told, in a single night. The following vessels are frozen in here: B. H. Hurt, Red Fox, A. L. No. 1, Sam, Groendyke, Lida Norvell, Uncle Buck, Morning Star, Kate Robinson, Qickstep, Fayette, Eddyville, Mary Ament, Bridge Tender, Commercial and the river wharfboats. All these vessels, except Commercial and the railroad wharfboat, are in safe places, unless the ice should break up with a heavy head rise.

—It is thought that steamers will not be compelled to halt this winter at Vicksburg, on account of ice, although it is heavy at Memphis. It may be remembered that in 1852, on January 5th, five steamers bound up the river, including the Iowa, Capt. Duncan S. Carter, found such heavy ice impeding their progress that they were compelled to lie up at Vicksburg the whole of that day. Since then ice has been known to float past New Orleans, and into the Gulf: as heavy ice is running out of the Arkansas, the Gulf may be again visited this year by the frigid floater.

—The Mississippi Valley Transportation Company is taking flour at St. Louis warehouses and sending it through by rail and barges to New Orleans at 95 cents per barrel. For heavy freight they charge 50 cents per pound.

—Pilot Isaac Gaugh, of the Robert Mitchell, is reported confined to his room aboard the boat at Columbus, Ky, by inflammatory rheumatism.

—The Boaz, with a coal fleet for New Orleans, sunk one of her boats at Waterproof, below Vicksburg, last week, and grounded the rest of her tow.

—The Ouachita Belle has withdrawn from Captain Belt's New Orleans and Ouachita line, and Captain Woodburn's steamer St. Mary has taken her place.

—The Tidal Wave arrived at New Orleans, from Arkansas River, last Saturday, with 2,086 bales of cotton, and was to have returned to the Arkansas River last Tuesday.

—The St. Marys went on the docks at New Orleans to be calked before making a trip up the Ouachita.

—General Nathan Ramsey, who has lived in St. Louis 52 years, says the present is the coldest winter ever known there during that time.

—Local Inspector H. H. Devenney was able to be on duty Wednesday.

—The H. S. Turner is on her way up the Mississippi with a slim trip for the Ohio.

DR. A. SLEE, No. 264 PENN STREET.—Longer in the practice of Special and Chronic Diseases than any physician in the city so advertising. All forms of venereal diseases cured in the most thorough and satisfactory manner. Spermatorrhoea or nervous debility, producing blotches, debility, dizziness, nervousness, dimness of sight, noises in the head, indigestion, despondency, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, and which unfit the victim for business or marriage, and ultimately causing consumption and insanity, are permanently cured. Long standing constitutional diseases skilfully treated, and the effects of mercury completely eradicated. The Doctor gives particular attention to female complaints, Sterility, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhoea, Dysmenorrhoea, and all irregularities giving annoyance and trouble. A medical pamphlet is published in plain language on venereal diseases sent by mail for two stamps. Correspondence strictly confidential. Hours—9 A. M. to 8 P. M., Sundays excepted. Pittsburgh Medical Institute, 264 Penn street. ja10id&W

JOB MOSES' SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS.—These invaluable Pills are unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. They moderate all excesses and remove all obstructions from whatever cause. To MARRIED LADIES they are particularly suited. They will in a short time bring on regularity, and although very powerful, contain nothing hurtful to the constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, they will effect a cure when all other means have failed. The circulars around each package give full directions and advice, or will be sent free to all writing for them, sealed from observation.
SPECIAL NOTICE.—It is the fate of every valuable medicine to be COUNTERFEITED. Job Moses' Sir James Clarke's Female Pills are extensively COUNTERFEITED. The genuine have the name of "JOB MOSES" on each package. All others are worthless. Dishonest Druggists endeavor to sell the counterfeits to make greater profits.
N. B.—In all cases where the GENUINE cannot be obtained, One Dollar enclosed to the Sole Proprietor, JOB MOSES, 18 Cortland street, New York, will insure a bottle of the genuine, containing Fifty Pills, by return mail, securely sealed from any knowledge of its contents. ja4:v17:TTHS-T

BRYAN'S PULMONIC WAFERS are unfailing in the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, Incipient Consumption and Diseases of the Lungs. First Ward Allegheny Schools.—The examination of the pupils of these schools which has been progressing through the past two weeks, ended yesterday. The exercises were highly entertaining, and of a creditable character. The schools are in a highly flourishing condition and will compare favorably with any in the two cities.

Installation.

The new officers of Alpha Chapter of Temperance and Wisdom, were duly installed on Thursday evening at the Hall of the Society on Fourth avenue, near Market street. The ceremonies were conducted by D. L. McCandless, Grand King, Miss Cappee, Grand Queen, and other officers of the Grand Chapter.

Following the installation, Rev. W. N. Van De Mark delivered a brief address on "Reformation." The remainder of the programme consisted of music, instrumental and vocal, among which a number of well rendered comic songs, interspersed with select readings and sketches by Miss Haller, Master Willie McCandless, and Messrs. Nicholson and Thomas. The occasion was one of much interest to the many visitors and members of the Chapter who were in attendance.

Coming to America.

Any of our readers who may have friends in foreign lands who contemplate coming to America, should avoid all trouble in the matter by securing through passage tickets at the European Agency of Mr. Max Schamberg, No. 163 Smithfield street. Mr. Schamberg will supply tickets at the very lowest rates, from any European port, to any point in America, east, west, north or south, and the purchaser, supplied with one of these through tickets can go straight to his journey's end without delay and by the best routes.

Mr. Schamberg also gives careful attention to collections in Europe and will transact all such matters promptly, and at the most reasonable figures. We can cordially endorse this gentleman and advise any of our readers interested in such matters to give him their patronage.

Fire Yesterday Morning.

Yesterday morning about four o'clock a fire broke out in the storeroom No. 140 Wood street, which is the headquarters of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Agency in this city. The first floor of the building—which is a three story brick structure—was the salesroom, the second floor the storing room, and the third floor was divided up into smaller rooms. One of these was occupied by Mr. B. B. Stewart, the general agent of the company, and the others by the family of Mr. S. O. Mobundro, the chief clerk.

The fire broke out in the attic and was first discovered by one of the children who heard something fall, and opened a door leading into the attic to find out what it was. The flames and smoke drove her back, and she had barely time to alarm the rest of the family when the fire broke through the ceiling. The escape of the inmates was very narrow—they having no time to save anything, and barely getting out with their lives.

The firemen were called out, and after great efforts succeeded in extinguishing the flames before they had reached the lower floor. The roof of the building was almost wholly destroyed, and in many places the ceilings of the third story were burned through. The upper part of the place was pretty thoroughly drenched with the water thrown, and carpets, furniture and clothing suffered to a great extent.

There was but a small stock of sewing machines on hand, and those which were wet were taken out, dried and oiled, so that the Company's loss will be small. The damage to the building will amount to about $1,000 which is fully covered by insurance. It is owned by Mr. Isaac Taylor.

The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks from the chimney falling on the roof.

Sherman Avenue Public Schools, Allegheny.

The examination of these schools, under the superintendence of Prof. S. A. Neale, took place on Thursday and Friday, the 1st and 2d insts. A large number of the parents, members of the School Board and other visitors, were present, and appeared to be gratified with the evidences afforded in the varied exercises, of a healthy and satisfactory progress in their studies by the various classes. The devotional exercises, which began at 1½ o'clock, were followed by exercises of classes from rooms 1, 2 and 3. These were very creditable to the scholars. Then a duet was sung by Misses Peterson and Woodson.

The Rev. Mr. King then briefly addressed the schools; following this and interspersed with the subsequent exercises, excellent vocal music was rendered by the whole school, and Misses Taoraton, Burley, Buncomb, Peterson and Jones.

A piece entitled "Press on," was well spoken by William Jodes; another, "Baron's Last Banquet" was particularly well declaimed by Master A. K. Neale.

The recitations and declamations, so creditable to all participants, as well as to the teachers, being ended, short commendatory speeches were made by Messrs. Claney, Barker, Benny and Rev. Mr. Williams. All certified their pleasure at what they had witnessed and their interest in the welfare of the colored schools, and on motion of Mr. Claney the following action of the meeting was had:

Whereas, We the visitors and members of the Board of Control of Allegheny City, and parents of the pupils in attendance at Sherman Avenue Schools, are highly pleased with the performances of the pupils at this literary entertainment.

Resolved, That our thanks are hereby tendered to Prof. S. A. Neale and his able assistant for the indefatigable efforts and great success in the moral and mental training of their pupils.

We found it, owing to other pressing engagements, impossible to be present at the examination this year as in former years; while we regret this, we are glad to acknowledge the favor of a good account of the exercises, prepared by Mr. Wm. Jones, one of the pupils.

We had almost forgotten to mention the presentation to Prof. Neale of a beautiful banner, painted by Mr. P. J. Carson, a colored artist, and lettered by another pupil, J. C. Hawkins.

REV. COL. CLARK'S WILL.

Not Yet Admitted to Probate.

For some time past the will of the late Rev. Col. J. B. Clark, of Allegheny, has been the theme of discussion in circles among which the deceased and his relatives are known. It seems he left an estate, which is variously estimated as worth from $10,000 to $20,000, and that his effects were all bequeathed to his wife as sole legatee. There are rumors that this arrangement is not entirely satisfactory to all the friends—not that any wish to deprive the lady of the property, but that there are certain keepsakes which the friends desire to have divided among themselves. Among these are a watch, presented to him by his regiment, with similar tokens, all of which, not so much on account of their intrinsic worth as because of the memories clustering around them, are considered peculiarly valuable. Naturally, the widow of the deceased prizes these and declines to give them up, which we have been informed is the cause of some trouble and has created a talk of contesting the will.

There is also said to be a disagreement in another quarter, coming from the witnesses to the will, who refuse to be qualified as to the deceased's mental equilibrium at the time the document was made. It will be remembered that he was ill for a long time, and suffered at times intensely, which it is thought in a measure toward the close to have somewhat impaired the vigor of his intellect. No definite action thus far has been taken to bring the matter before the courts, but, judging from the discussion which is now going on, that will probably be the only satisfactory ultimatum.

BURGLAR ARRESTED.

The Hero of Two Robberies in the Lockup.

About a week ago Chief Clark of Allegheny received a letter from Mr. Thomas McKean, of Washington, Pa., in which the writer stated his house had been robbed the evening previous of a quantity of valuable goods. The robbery was supposed to have been committed by a negro, of whom a full description was given. The official kept a sharp lookout for the thief who was supposed to be in the city somewhere.

Last Wednesday evening the house of Mr. Jones, corner Irwin and Lincoln avenues, was entered and over a hundred dollars' worth of property taken, and the police were notified, but no clue was obtained to the thief. Yesterday afternoon the Chief was passing along Sixth (St. Clair) street, near the bridge, when he observed a colored man answering to the description of the supposed Washington thief. He at once attempted to take him into custody, but the fellow resisted, and officer Boyle, special officer at the bridge, was called upon for assistance. The prisoner was taken to the lockup, where he gave his name as John Golden. Upon examination the officer found that the overcoat he had on was one of the garments stolen from Mr. Jones' house. A number of pawn tickets were found on him, and by making a tour of the shops with these the officers secured all the stolen goods belonging to Mr. Jones.

Golden was placed in a cell then to await a hearing to-day. He began at once to dig out, and had excavated an opening of respectable dimensions in a side wall, when he was observed and stopped in his operations—being removed to other quarters. He will have a hearing to-day.

BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

Regular Monthly Meeting—The Proposed Insane Asylum at the City Farm—Minor Matters of Interest.

The Board of Guardians of the Poor held a regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, all the members being present.

After the reading of the minutes,

Mr. Robert Arthurs, from the Committee on Insane Asylum, presented the majority report of that committee, setting forth that there were forty-seven insane persons in the Poor Home, who in a measure intermingled with the sane; that to maintain them at Dixmont would entail a cost of $3.50 per week each, while at the Home they could be maintained for $1.50. There was therefore a necessity of establishing an Insane Department at the Farm, and the committee recommended that an occupied three story building on the premises, removed from the main building, be fitted up for the purpose. They recommended the appointment of a committee of five to attend to this matter.

Mr. Smythe presented a minority report, recommending the erection of a new wing to the main building for the Insane Department.

Both reports were accepted and filed, and the consideration of the matter postponed until next meeting.

The Secretary read a communication from the General Agent of the P. V. & C. R. R., accepting the terms of the Board for right of way through their property.

The monthly reports of the officers were then presented and approved. They contained nothing of general interest.

Adjourned.

We know of no house in the city, which we can more cordially recommend to purchasers of ready made or custom made gents' clothing, than Urling, Follansbee & Co.'s, southwest corner of Wood street and Fifth avenue.

THE OIL CASE.

The Fourth Day.

The case of Owston & Sowers vs. the Allegheny Valley Railroad was continued in the Court of Common Pleas, before Judge Stowe, yesterday morning.

The examination of

Joseph Bates, who was on the stand at the time of adjournment Thursday afternoon, was continued. He testified: Lockhart & Frew received in the month of December, 1869, two hundred and thirty-seven cars from the A. V. R. R.; one night in the forepart of December, I think on the 7th, there was a smash-up on the road, and the cars came up in the night; Mr. King, Assistant Superintendent, asked me to load the cars in the night. [Witness looks at book.] Did not load any cars on the 26th; on 27th, 12; on 28th, 12; and the 29th, 22; none on the 30th, and 6 on the 31st.

LOCKHART AND FREW'S TANKAGE.

Cross-examined—Lockhart and Frew's tankage at Venango City is about 38,000 barrels, and in Oil City 12,500; we rented a tank in Oil City of about 15,000 barrels; we could load ten cars at a time; we did not need many cars from the 1st to the 15th; we got all we wanted. [Witness then gave the dates in December, 1869, upon which cars were received and the number aggregating 237 cars.] When I load at night the trains were all late; Mr. King asked me to load the cars, and said if he got them loaded he could send them down next day and get them back sooner; he asked me what time it would take me; I told him about twelve to one o'clock; Mr. King went across the river; my recollection is that I didn't load all the empty cars that came up; I think we had not loaded any cars at night before that month; there never were any cars loaded at night until the month of December; the ordinary run of a train of cars was down at night and up at night, loading being done in the daytime, and unloading here in the daytime; it would take forty-eight hours to make the round trip; I suppose there were eight or ten shipping; there was more oil to ship in December than before; we had as much oil in November as December; whether there was an unusual demand or not I don't know; we all wanted more cars; I would have taken all the road had; there were only three heavy shippers; the allotment of cars was made by Mr. McCreary; he showed me the dispatch on the 23d; have seen that dispatch (dispatch shown); this dispatch does not read as it was on my mind; the date was the 22d, I think; it was addressed to McCreary and signed J. J. Lawrence; I fix the date from my dispatch to Lockhart & Frew, and also from my letter; could not give the exact contents; my impression of its contents is from my dispatch and from my conversation with Mr. McCreary; I only know of the cars that Owston & Sowers handed over to me; I thought we had never got our full allotment of cars, the way other lines had been allotting; I based that on the quantity of oil then ready for shipment; I mean in reference to what others had to ship.

Re-direct—The three cars I got from Owston & Sowers were in place of nine I gave them before.

John Marshall, testified: I reside at Oil City; we have a pipe across from Oil City to Venango City; part of the month of December, 1869, Owston & Co., had connection with our pipe while it was across the river in 1869.

THE PRICE OF OIL.

Isaac M. Sowers, recalled—I can give the market prices of oil at Oil City during the month of December, 1869. (Witness then read memoranda of prices from the 1st to the 31st of December). The average for the month was $5 28 per barrel of forty-three gallons. The question was asked me if I had received any payment of barge oil except the six barges mentioned yesterday; I answered I had not; I meant that I received payment for no barge oil shipped from Oil City to Pittsburgh, except these; upon reflection I thought my answer might have created a wrong impression, and I desire to make an explanation.

Cross-examination—I never received payment for any oil shipped by Parker & Thompson by barge; we did not sell any oil to them after the 6th of August, 1869, to end of the year; had no transactions with them except to buy oil and make settlements; I state the price of oil principally from personal recollection; I don't know any other reason for the fluctuation of the market price of oil except that the demand was not equal to the supply; I do not think that it was owing to the want of transportation; there were a great many outlets for oil except by the river and the Allegheny Valley Railroad; from the 1st to the 9th I understood there were slides on the road and the cars did not come up as usual; there was high water about the first of the month; the detention on the road was not longer, I think, than a day at a time; I made no effort at Oil City to get down the river; I asked permission to load some barges, and Mr. Owston said I could not get it; I don't think the "bull ring" at Pittsburgh had any effect on the price of oil at Oil City; I don't know whether the bull ring made transportation difficult; there was a great scarcity of cars as far as we were concerned; other parties getting cars but there was a great scarcity with us; I used to wonder a good deal why the cars were not coming up.

Re-direct—I was in constant daily communication with Mr. Owston here, several times a day.

Daniel Fisher was next called and testified that he attended to the shipping of oil to Fisher Bros., at Pittsburgh. There were six who had interest in the pipes across the river who shipped; know that there were outside parties who shipped oil who were not known to be in the oil business; I would say that Owston & Sowers could ship 3,000 bbls per day and not push themselves.

Cross-examined—I handled all the oil for Fisher Brothers at Oil City; they were shippers by rail and river both; Lockhart & Frew had about 13,000 barrels, and on this side two small tanks of about 3,600 barrels; our firm was shipping in the month of December by rail to Pittsburgh; we got that month 109 cars for ourselves; we got twenty-four cars for John Watt; those cars we had nothing to do with; we did not get all the cars we wanted during that month; I could load more cars than the Allegheny Valley Railroad brought to Oil City; we could have loaded from fifty to sixty cars a day if I had full control of the cars; had both the oil and facilities; we made application for more cars; I went there once and concluded it was no use going any more; Pittsburgh parties get the cars and send them out; we put the oil in them; I saw the connection made by Owston & Sowers with the Munhall pipes; there were five leading places in all Venango City during December 1870; Lockhart & Frew could load 13 cars at a time, Fisher Bros 18, Owston & Sowers 6, Munhall 8 or 10, and the rest from 4 to 6; if they all were loading at the same time they could load one hundred cars a day, fifty in forenoon and fifty in the afternoon; it would take a train thirty-six hours to make the round trip; there were parties shipping in December who had not been shipping for seven months before; they got their proportions of cars along with the rest of us; I thought they got more than their share; Lockhart & Frew were the parties; they had not been shipping during the previous summer; we understood that the cars were not unloaded promptly at Pittsburgh; I thought the cars were unloaded promptly as to some parties and not as to others.

Theodore Tack, sworn—The market price of oil in December, 1869, ranged from 15 to 18 or 18½ cents per gallon; it was the latter figure during the last days of the month, on the 31st day of the month we sold 2,000 barrels, spot or December, at 18@18½ cents per gallon.

Cross-examined—This information I take from my books; we bought oil for Messrs. Owston & Sowers as brokers, but whether we bought oil from them for ourselves I don't remember; we made contracts for them in December; I cannot state the gravity without referring to my books.

The further cross-examination was suspended until Mr. Tack could examine his books.

Thos. Cole, sworn—I am a petroleum broker; that was in business in December, 1869, the price of oil that month was 18 cents; this is the price I made myself as a broker; I made a sale of two barges crude oil on the 31st of December at 18 cents; there was a sale made at a higher figure, but I did not make it; the day before the price of oil I think was 17 cents.

Re-direct—I spoke of a higher sale, which we made at 18½ cents.

Mr. Calder recalled—I was in the employ of Owston & Sowers as bookkeeper for four years; was with them in Oil City in December, 1869; they were producers and shippers of crude oil; they were extensively engaged in the business; I know of their contracts from my own knowledge; I know that W. H. Abbott had 15,166 barrels and same firm 9,416 for Owston & Sowers; they did not receive it, because they did not get it removed: A. E. Higby tendered 1,012 barrels that we could not receive; we could not get cars to take it away; for the same reason, Rochester Oil Company, 981 barrels; for the same reason, O. D. Harrington 1,000 barrels; A. E. Higby; another lot of 416 not received; for same reason, Parker, Thompson & Co., 99 barrels and 1,670 barrels not received—because we could not get cars; Fisher Bros., 810, not received; B. Goe, 3,616, not received; Bowman, 1,000; B. Goe, 1,166—a total of 35,557 barrels not received because we could not get cars; beside that we had 12,719 barrels in our own tanks; we had that on the 31st of December, 1869; the two together make a total of 48,786 barrels; our gravity was 44° to 46°; our men were sent to railroad two and three times a day, at night and on Sunday to get cars; we were unable to get cars; they got ninety-nine cars; we did not get all the cars we required, nor all we wanted; I did not mean we did not get any; the dates we got cars were on December second and third, 13 cars; eleventh, 11 cars; fourteenth, 6 cars; twentieth, 4 cars; twenty-first, 6 cars; twenty-second, 6 cars; twenty-third 14 cars, twenty-fourth 10 cars, twenty-fifth 5 cars, twenty-seventh 9 cars, thirtieth 7 cars, thirty-first 8 cars. Total 99 cars. During the entire month the plaintiffs had oil ready to ship to Pittsburgh; we had 9,600 barrels on hand on thirtieth of November to commence the month with; we received during December 35,000 barrels of oil.

I am book-keeper for Owston & Sowers; I made no contracts for oil; they were made by Mr. Sowers; I don't know where the Abbott oil was; he came to the office to offer us the oil; at different times they tendered us the oil; they have a place of business at Oil City; we bought this oil on the lower creek; we went to send our cars; we did not send any transportation up for the oil because we could not get cars; we could not get transportation during the whole month; we did not take the Abbott oil in the middle of the month, because we could not get transportation at the end of the month; I think we had about 5,000 barrels in the 15,000 barrel tank about the middle of the month; between the 11th and 25th we received about 4,000 barrels of oil; 29th and 30th, 9,000 barrels; left us on hand the 4,000 barrels on the 31st of December, 1869, we delivered 26,000 barrels in the month of December. The oil was sold to different parties; we shipped to Cleveland 5,659 barrels; the total shipped to Pittsburgh was 9,947; of this 1,059 were shipped to Byers & Co., who put in the cars and we filled them. In the shipments mentioned were 427 barrels to Boltman. This oil came down to the Valley Road and was loaded on Valley Road, and run down to West Penn. Junction, about seventy-five or eighty miles from Venango; all then came from our tank at Oil City; there were 26,000 barrels shipped away either by the Valley road or other roads; there were no shipments by boats from our tank in November; Higby lives at Oil City; the oil under the contract was to be delivered to us at Oil City on December 15th; on the 1st tendered by A. E. Higby of 800 barrels, and another on December 31st of 416 barrels; we paid them the differences; that is the way I fix the dates; the dates of paying the differences are recorded in my book; on December 28th we settled with Mr. W. H. Abbott for the large contract, and on the 31st for another lot. O. D. Harrington was a producer and lived somewhere up the creek. The oil was not tendered to me individually. The settlement with Hampton was made on the 28th; Porter, Thompson & Co. did not tender to us the oil; we settled with them December 31st; the Fisher oil was not tendered me individually; we gave Fisher credit on 31st December. Bateman Goe lives at Pittsburgh; it was in Oil City he made his contract with us; I believe he could get the oil if he hadn't it; December 31st we had in our tank at Oil City 3,480 barrels.

Court here adjourned until Monday morning at nine o'clock.

Mayor Blackmore, in his instructions to his police, requested them, in order to look neat and tidy, to have their hair cut at Louis Green's Shaving Saloon, in the Central Hotel. The Mayor knows by experience that the Central Shaving Saloon has grown so popular that almost all the young men want their hair cut, and shaved, at this popular shaving saloon. Drop in to-day and judge for yourself.

IN CHECK.

Arrival in the City of those Check Raisers, from Baltimore—Some Account of their Agricultural and Financial Operations—Hearing Before Alderman Neubert—Comegys and Ludwig Committed for Trial—Swonnstadt Goes to Louisville.

In our telegraphic columns yesterday, we published a brief account of the arrest, in Baltimore, of Henry C. Comegys, James S. Ludwig and Dr. S. Leroy Swonnstadt, as the parties who have for some time past been swindling various banks throughout the country, through the medium of raised checks. It seems that Detectives Pearson, West and Smith, of Baltimore, have, for six months past, been anxiously watching their operations, and only awaiting a favorable opportunity to bring them to a termination. That opportunity was afforded the other day in Baltimore, by the identification on the street, by Wm. D. King, Esq., teller of the Fort Pitt Bank of this city, of Comegys, as the person who swindled that institution so adroitly out of $2,400 last November, by means of the well remembered wheat transactions. The detectives mentioned recognized in Comegys one of the trio upon whose track they had been for so long a time, and the whole party was arrested, as stated yesterday morning. Previous to his going East, it appears, Mr. King had received an intimation that the man who had victimized the Fort Pitt Bank was in Baltimore, and having good proof that Ludwig (who it appears is the scribe for the party) had been in some way connected with the transaction, proceeded, on the 26th of January to make an information against the pair, before Alderman Neubert. Detective Samuel Long, of this city, had been entrusted with the working up of the Fort Pitt Bank case, and after the information had been made before 'Squire Neubert, had obtained a requisition from Governor Geary, for Comegys and Ludwig. A like document had been obtained from the Governor of Kentucky for Dr. Swonnstadt, on account of a couple of check operations in Louisville, and after the arrest of the parties they were handed over by the authorities of Maryland, under these requisitions.

The whole party arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, in charge of detectives Pearson and West. After being brought to the Mayor's office, where they remained about a half hour, the while being subjected to the curious gaze of a large crowd of spectators, Swonnstadt was removed to the Central station house for safe-keeping during the night, while the other two were taken to the office of 'Squire Neubert for a hearing, on the information made by Mr. King. The affidavit of this gentleman sets forth that on the 6th of November last, Henry C. Comegys had presented at the Fort Pitt Bank a check calling for $2,400, which was paid. This check had been drawn by Daniel Wallace, to the order of Amos White, and had originally, it appeared, called for but $24.50. From this figure it had been "raised" to $2,400; the date changed from October 30th to November 6th, and the check also altered so as to be made payable to Amos White, or bearer. The information charged Comegys with presenting this check and receiving the amount, with intent to defraud the bank, and Ludwig was charged with aiding and abetting in the transaction.

Major A. M. Brown and District Attorney Bain, represented the Commonwealth, while A. C. Smith, Esq., Harrisburg, and John Robb, Esq., of this city, appeared for the accused.

The first witness called was Mr. King, who testified that he had identified Comegys, on Baltimore street, in the Monumental City, who had presented the check at the Fort Pitt Bank in November last, and to whom he had paid the amount, $2,400. He also testified to the fact that the "raising" of the check could be proven. When the check had been presented at the bank, at first he had suspected that all was not right, but glancing at the bearer of it, and noticeing that he was an uncommonly fine looking man, he had paid over the money without making any objection.

The Baltimore detectives, Pearson and West testified that they, in connection with officer Smith, had arrested the party in Baltimore, after being on their track for some eight months. Comegys had been an insurance agent, while Ludwig represented himself as being a dentist. Their rendezvous was at the office of the latter, where they had been in the habit of receiving frequent visits from Dr. Swonnstadt, who had ostensibly adopted the practice of medicine. On the person of Ludwig, among other papers, had been found a check drawn on a Cincinnati bank, drawn to the order of Amos White, calling for $36.80. This check was not endorsed on the back, and it is supposed had just been received, and formed the ground work for a new operation. A couple of letters were also found on one of the men, which notified the parties that a quantity of wheat had been shipped to them. These letters they attempted to keep from the officers, stating that they were love letters, and would be of no possible benefit to the detectives.

No other testimony being offered the Alderman committed the parties for trial at court, in default of $2,500 each.

Dr. Swonnstadt will leave this morning in charge of Detective Pearson, for Louisville, where he is wanted to answer a charge of check raising, preferred by Mr. Samuel, paying teller of the Bank of Kentucky, at Louisville. Mr. Samuel has identified Swonnstadt as the man to whom he paid $3,600, on one of the checks, on the 12th of December last. This check was drawn by Smyser, Milton & Co., payable to Amos White, for $36.50, and had been raised to $3,600. A few days after this transaction, it appears, Swonnstadt had attempted to make another raise, by presenting at one of the banks of Louisville a check for $3,700. The teller paid the money without suspecting that anything was wrong, until after Swonnstadt had taken his departure, when, upon examination of the bank account of the man upon whom the check was drawn, it was discovered that he had but $37.50 in bank. Upon making this discovery, the teller started after the "doctor," and overtook him several squares from the bank. Telling him there was something wrong, he requested him to return to the bank and have matters righted. He did so, and when they arrived at the bank his doctorship was informed that the gentleman upon whom the check was drawn had in bank funds to the amount of but about the hundredth part of the amount drawn upon the check. Swonnstadt explained that he had no doubt it was the intention of the party to make a deposit before the close of banking hours, that day; indeed, he had been so informed; but if the matter was not satisfactory, he would return the amount, if the check were returned to him. Upon being assured that it was far from being satisfactory to the institution to pay out so large a sum to an entire stranger, when there were almost "no funds" to back the amount called for by the check, he paid over the amount and received in return the check—which would doubtless have formed the base of another charge against him—and was allowed to depart.

It is stated that Swonnstadt also collected from the First National Bank, Richmond, Va., on September 22d last, $3,600 on a check of G. Barksdale, Treasurer of Galley's Mills, raised from $36.48; also, $3,000 from the National Bank of Cincinnati on a check of Perie, Gould & Co., raised from $36.30.

Ludwig collected from the First National Bank at Washington, D. C., August 1st, $3,600 on a check drawn by Ross, Ray & Bros., raised from $36.70.

The wheat transaction of Comegys, in November last, of which a detailed account was published in the daily papers at the time, is still fresh in the memory of our readers. It will be remembered that Mr. Wallace, a grain dealer in the city, received from a person, signing himself Amos White, and writing from McKeesport, a box containing several samples of wheat, which the writer desired to know the value of per bushel. He also sent a small quantity of gold coin, which he desired Mr. Wallace to sell for him, as he (White) was a farmer, and was not often in the city. The obliging grain dealer sent the desired information, and with it a check on the Fort Pitt Bank, for $24.50, the proceeds of the gold coin which had been enclosed in the box with the wheat samples. This check was afterward raised to $2,400, and the money drawn upon it, as related above.

A circumstance connected with this transaction, however, has since come to light, which was not made public at that time. A lad whom the operator at McKeesport had employed as his agent, to deliver and draw his letters from the postoffice at McKeesport, was in the employ, also, of the detectives who were then on Comegys' track. This lad, it is now stated, got hold of the check, and placed thereon a mark whereby it might be identified afterward.

The counsel for Comegys and Ludwig state that they are confident they will be able to prove an alibi in the case of their clients, but of course the truth of this assertion remains to be tested at the forthcoming trial.

In all the charges brought against the parties, the Baltimore detectives state, upwards of $50,000 are involved.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

Before Alderman Neubert yesterday, Mrs. Elizabeth White appeared, and made a charge of false pretense against Morris Moritz. The deponent alleged that Moritz had obtained forty dollars from her, by representing that he possessed property in Germany valued at $200—which proved upon investigation, to be false.

Carl Joseph Barbara, also, made an information before Squire Neubert, charging Moritz and his wife with keeping a disorderly house at 52 Ninth street. The accused were arrested, and hearings will be had shortly on both charges.

Charges were preferred before the Mayor, yesterday, against John Keating and Mary Wright, the former for cruelty to animals and the latter for larceny. Officer Ruch was entrusted with the warrants, and arrested the parties. They will probably have a hearing to-day.

Yesterday Mr. George Ford, a farmer residing near Wexford, P. O., in this county, made an information before Mayor Callow, charging a young man named Wm. J. Dickson with larceny. Ford was stopping at Campbell's tavern on Federal street, and alleges that he was awakened by feeling some person fumbling about his pillow, beneath which he had placed a pocketbook containing two dollars. He jumped out of bed and found Dickson in the room. A pair of boots belonging to Dickson were found on the porch in the rear of the tavern. The young man was arrested and waived a hearing and entered bail for trial at court.

A very mysterious cutting affair took place Thursday night on the platform of the Union Depot. A man named Pritchard was at the depot to see some friends who were going away on the train, and while he was standing on the platform, some man ran up to him, exclaiming, "D—n you, you are the man I'm looking for." As he spoke, the stranger struck Mr. Pritchard with a knife on the left breast, inflicting a severe and dangerous wound just over the heart. A second blow was struck almost instantly, but Mr. Pritchard warded this off with his hand, thereby receiving a severe cut across the fingers. The assailant turned then and ran away before he could be seized. The wounded man was carried to the hotel at the corner of Penn and Eleventh streets, where he boards, and Dr. Asdale was summoned to attend him. The wound on the breast, as we have said, is a dangerous one. Who the assailant was is not known.

A Marble House in Pittsburgh wrote East to three different manufacturers of marbleized mantels to know at what price they would sell marbleized mantels by wholesale. Reply came, "cannot sell as low as W. W. Wallace. There is no use in making you an offer, we cannot compete with him." W. W. Wallace has had a long practical knowledge of the business, has all the advantages of steam power, and is the only place in Western Pennsylvania where marbelized mantels are manufactured. (All others sold here are brought from the East and sold second-handed.) His stock is the largest, prices the lowest, styles the latest, and workmanship the best. Grates, Fronts, Ranges and Hot Air Furnaces of the latest and most improved patterns, and superior to any brought here from other cities and at lower prices. Our office and warerooms, 319 and 321 Liberty street, first and second floors, one square below Grain Elevator.

N. B.—He is now getting up (to be patented) new machinery for cutting all the mouldings on fronts, &c., of mantels, which will give him further advantages and enable him to still reduce prices and expedite work. Purchasers will save money by calling at 319 Liberty street.

Parties on a grand scale are held by social circles where only gentlemen are invited, and a magnificently good time is generally had. The ladies insist that if things are to be so revolutionized as to exclude them from these sociable, that in oppsition to stag clubs they will form doe societies and retaliate by ignoring the sterner sex entirely.

JOHN D. MCFADEN ESQ., formerly Street Commissioner of the Second District, departed this life yesterday morning. He was Assistant Health Officer of the city, a position which he ably filled for some time past, and was very generally known in the city as a generous hearted and courteous gentleman. He had been ill seven weeks prior to death, and was resigned to the decree which called him away. Mr. McFaden was a soldier during the war, and a member of Co A. Duquesne Greys, who will attend his funeral to-morrow afternoon.

ONE of the most pleasant occasions of a social character of the season was that in the way of a surprise party of some fifty gentlemen, who called to pay their respects to William Woods, Esq., the well known steel manufacturer, on Thursday evening, at his residence on the Second Avenue Park. He gave up his house to them in the true spirit of hospitality, and spread a most magnificent banquet board, which gave zest to the occasion. The evening passed away delightfully. The guests are preparing for a visitation in a fresh direction, having already surprised Messrs. Joseph Finch, A. Pitcairn, John Chislett, and meeting with no repulse propose fighting it out on that line if it takes all winter. Such social reunions are always pleasant, and add spice to the monotony of business and professional life and drudgery.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Personal and Otherwise.

REV. VAN DE MARK'S subjects for to-morrow, A. M., "Spiritual Impressions." P. M., "Sunshine and Tempest."

REV. DAVID HALL of Mansfield, has declined the call given him from the Central Presbyterian Church, Allegheny.

REV. DR. I. C. PERSHING will conduct services morning and evening to-morrow in the Oakland School House—the Oakland Mission.

THE monthly concert of the Ladies' Home Missionary Society will be held to-morrow evening in the North avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny.

THE REV. MR. ELDER, of McKeesport, is expected to preach in the Second U. P. Church, Allegheny, to-morrow. Rev. R. Audley Browne has been mentioned in connection with the pastorate of this Church. Dr. Browne is well known as one of the ablest ministers in the U. P. body, and no better selection could be made.

REV. G. W. WILLIAMS, a graduate of Howard University and Theological student at Newton University, Boston, will preach in Zion Baptist church, on Park Way, near Federal street, Allegheny, to-morrow (Lord's day) at 10½ A. M., and 7½ P. M. He will also address the missionary meeting in the church, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

AT a recent meeting of the Sabbath School teachers connected with the First U. P. Church this city, (Rev. W. J. Reid's) a series of appropriate and sympathetic resolutions were passed in reference to the death of Mr. W. H. Edie, one of the most active Sunday school workers and laymen of the church, whose demise we recorded a few weeks ago.

REV. JOHN GAILEY, the newly elected pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian church of this city, will deliver a sermon under the auspices of the Eleventh Ward Mission, in the hall of the Moorhead public school house, Granville street, near Wylie avenue, on Sabbath evening at 7½ o'clock. Mr. Gailey, is an effective and eloquent preacher, and we bespeak for him a large audience. All are invited. Seats free.

THE GOOD PEOPLE of the Temperanceville M. E. Church and representatives of other denominations, very agreeably surprised the Pastor of the Church, Rev. R. T. Miller, by a donation party last Thursday evening, at which he was made the recipient of a solid testimonial of their esteem—a wallet containing $300 in gold. The company assembled at the elegant residence of Capt. John A. Wood, and spent the evening in feasting and music, and conversation and delightful social intercourse which was so happily crowned by the most interesting feature of all—the presentation ceremony. The donors were represented by Rev. G. A. B. Robinson, of the U. P. Church; Rev. E. P. Donahoo, the Presbyterian minister, also took part in the exercises, which were witnessed and enjoyed by about two hundred persons.

Much of the pleasure of the evening was due to the efforts of the hospitable host and hostess, who had kindly thrown open their spacious mansion to accommodate the guests, and who were indefatigable in their efforts to make all enjoy the occasion. The Finance Committee, who performed the task of raising the money, consisted of Mrs. K. M Robson, Mrs. C. Mahey, Mrs. Annie Hershberger, Mrs. Wm. Straley, Miss Ella Wood and Messrs. Thomas Hershberger, L. S. Jack, George H. Johnston and Samuel H. French. From personal acquaintance, we know the donors could not have evidenced their liberality toward a more faithful pastor, or one who, as a minister and Christian gentleman, is more worthy of their regard.

RAILROAD FATALITY.

Man Run Over Near Transfer Station—The Suicidal Practice of Walking on Railroad Tracks.

A man named John Bradley was yesterday afternoon struck by the Brady's Bend accommodation train, which left the Union Depot at 3:20 o'clock, on the track of the A. V. R. R., near Transfer station, and received, in all human probability, fatal injuries. The man was walking on the track, seemingly absorbed in thought, when the train approached him at the point mentioned. Being warned of impending danger, by some ladies passing along Liberty street at the time, he looked up to see the train within about fifteen feet of him. He seemed to become confused, and, although attempting to get out of the way of the approaching train, was struck while in the act of stepping off the track. Before the train could be checked, the engine, tender, and one or two of the cars had passed over him, completely severing both his right limbs from his body. Dr. T. C. Rhodes was summoned to attend the injured man, who, late last night, was in a dying condition.

Bradley was aged about twenty-five years, and a black-smith by trade, as appeared from a pass book upon his person, through which means he was identified.

Reward of True Merit.

Wonderful as has been the success of the Taylor & Farley Celeste Organs in the past, they are destined to even greater celebrity in the near future, and it is really gratifying to see true merit appreciated, and especially in this community, which has to some extent appeared to deserve the reputation of buying cheap goods, at the expense of those of quality, thereby encouraging the traffic in cheap and comparatively worthless instruments. But the immense trade which sprang up for the above celebrated organs is a gratifying evidence that the public taste and common sense of our matter-of-fact community, is deserving of a better reputation. It used to be that persons buying instruments could be imposed upon by having represented to them that this, or that, instrument was the same, precisely, (except the name,) that Mr. Brown, the banker, bought, and, indeed, he (the dealer) had been using one of the same kind in his own family for sixteen years.

But the purchaser of to-day judges for himself, and where they find an instrument combining all the excellencies and advantages that the Taylor & Farley Organs possess, with such power, variety, purity and sweetness of voicing, they do not long hesitate in making choice of T. & F. Organs, and while it is no doubt very gratifying to the manufacturers' general agents, S. Hamilton & Co., 51 Fifth avenue, to receive so liberal a share of the public patronage, yet it affords more general pride in this evidence that the public can discriminate between the valuable and the indifferent, and thus reward true merit.

THE COURTS.

DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE KIRKPATRICK.

The first case taken up yesterday morning was that of Cornelius Roddy vs. Jas. Hudspeth. This was an action to recover damages for injuries sustained. The parties reside at West Elizabeth, and it is alleged that Hudspeth struck Roddy on the eye with a beer glass and destroyed the sight by the blow. Verdict for plaintiff for $1,500.

The next case taken up was that of G. K. Flowers, administrator of the estate of James Oliver, vs. George F. Denniston. This is an action in ejectment. Verdict for plaintiff subject to the decision of the Court on questions of law reserved.

COMMON PLEAS—JUDGES STERRETT AND STOWE.

The case of O'Neill vs. Backhouse, reported Thursday, is still on trial in Judge Sterrett's branch of this Court.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE M'CANDLESS.

In the case of Barker, Pearce & Co. vs. the steamer "Loreno," the report of the Commissioner approved by the Court and the fund remaining in the Registry of the Court ordered to be distributed to those entitled to receive the same.

Wm. Means filed a petition for adjudication in bankruptcy against Wm. J. Smith, of Coultersville, Allegheny county, Pa. The usual order to show cause was made.

In the matter of Carr, McCandless & Co. et al vs C. W. Bingham, of New Castle, Pa., against whom a petition for adjudication in bankruptcy was filed on the 27th inst., the usual order to show cause was made.

The February special term of this court will commence on Monday when the following

MELANGE.

THERE is a school teacher in Erie named Miss Ditto.

A MORNING paper calls the murder of a son "filicide." It doubtless meant to say "Sonnyside."—N. Y. Post.

MISS ANNA MEHLIG, the greatest of German pianistes has returned to America and is now giving concerts in New York.

MISS THACKERART'S novel, entitled "Old Kensington," whereon she has been so long engaged, will begin with the year in the Cornhill, and will also appear in an American magazine, as the Athenaeum tells us.

A GRANITE-quarry has lately been opened in Hingham, Mass., the products of which are said to rival the famous Quincy granite, both in fineness and color, and the quarry is reported inexhaustible. It splits and works easily.

A N. Y. PAPER says: An officer saw two thieves carrying a trunk in Canal street, near Baxter, last night. Finding they were watched, they dropped the trunk and ran. The trunk was opened and found to contain tracts.

THE pen may be mightier than the sword, but the Danbury News thinks that if you take two swords and rivet them together near the centre, you will find that in many newspaper offices they are far mightier than the pen.

THE Greencastle, (Indiana) Banner says: "Miss Fannie J. Kellogg called on Miss Nilsson while at Indianapolis on Tuesday, and will probably go to Europe with her in the spring, for the purpose of traveling and pursuing her musical studies."

THE report that the New York weekly Tribune has lost 60,000 of its circulation of 190,000 since it began its crusade against Grant and the Republican party, is now said to have been somewhat exaggerated, as the paper never had within fifty thousand of so large a circulation.

THE Cincinnati Commercial asks did it occur to the aristocratic people of Louisville that the Grand Duke Alexis is the son of an Abolitionist? Is it not sad that people who have been robbed, so to speak, of their slaves, should treat a member of a family of Abolitionists with distinguished consideration?

IN the ode delivered during the Russian Grand Duke's visit to the Louisville Opera House; Peter the Great is spoken of as "the wisest and the best" of the "Ceasars of the north men bold." It is well enough, we think, to praise a man's great grandfathers if you don't do it at the expense of his father.

A RICH young fellow from Alabama visted New York, the other day, and, having imbibed a little too freely, took it into his muddled head to enlist in the United States service, under the impression that there was to be immediate war with Spain. He is now petitioning the Secretary of War for a discharge.

AMONG the beneficial effects that have been attributed to the blue and violet rays their influence on the sight is of considerable importance. It is said that if the ground glass globes for lamps or gas burners are tinted with blue the light is peculiarly grateful to the eye. A lining or covering of blue tissue paper may give the desired tint.

PROFESSOR JOSEPH HENRY, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, was authorized at the late meeting of its regents to take measures for communicating to European astronomers and receiving from them by the ocean cable telegraphic accounts of discoveries of new planets. Under the present custom the place of a planet may be lost if discovered in Europe before it is known where to look for it here.

THE New Orleans Republican of Jan. 26 says: "During all day yesterday, and until midnight last night, there was a silver covering on every branch and twig of tree and shrubbery, on the telegraph wires, and roof and galleries of public and private buildings. Many trees were broken down by their crystal adornments, and many others, especially of the spruce and fir species, were uprooted. The sight was beautiful, but the damage fearful."

DR. DUDGEON, by immersing his eyes in water, found that a lens with a focus 1½ inch restored perfect vision under water. He then constructed spectacles with air lenses, formed by very concave watch glasses placed back to back and united round their edges by a water-tight ring of wood or vulcanite, and with a focus of 1½ inches in water. This ingenious contrivance secured perfect vision both for near and distant objects, both in air and water.

A MRS. THOMAS, of Eugene Hill, Pa., last year lost a small gold chain, to which were attached a gold dollar, a locket and some charms. She insisted that one of the hens had swallowed it, but her husband laughed at this as folly. Last week one of the hens, when killed, was noticed to have something hard in its crop. She suggested to her husband that this might be the chain, and on cutting the fowl open the hard substance turned out to be a lot of gravel.

GEORGIA is moving in behalf of a stupendous project, which if carried out, will materially affect the commerce of the Mississippi river. The proposition is to construct a canal from St. Louis to Savannah, mainly for the transportation of grain—a route that would be 300 miles less to the sea than that of the Mississippi river. It is estimated that the cost of this enterprise will not exceed $10,000,000—a mere trifle in comparison with the new trade that it would divert to Georgia.

THEY have a story in Chicago that a man who was vaccinated now has the hydrophobia, though he was never bitten by a dog, at least not to his remembrance, and it is probable he would know the fact if it were so. The tale is untrue, of course, though it has had the effect of frightening many silly folks, who positively refuse the only known preventive of small-pox. The person said to have the hydrophobia has called, perfectly well, at the newspaper offices, positively denying the report, but, of course, this will result in nothing.

EXPERIMENTS with sub-marine torpedoes are now making in Boston harbor, in order to familiarize the officers and men of the United States navy with the method of handling this new instrument of warfare. Recently a hundred pound torpedo was lowered into the water from a spar projecting from the bow of the United States steamer Wyoming. The torpedo was exploded by electricity, and a volume of water was sent up to a distance of 300 feet. Jets of water, resembling a large fountain, were also thrown to a height of 250 feet.

THE Omaha Tribune of January 28th says: "A Californian, journeying east, found himself caught on a snow-bound train in the last storm, and, not having a sufficient sum of money to meet his eating-house expenses, he hired out as a shoveller on the railroad. Having worked half a day, he made up his mind that, if he could shovel snow out in the cold, he could also walk over the obstructed part of the road. So he started from Lookout, and walked 90 miles to Cheyenne, whence he took a train for this city, arriving here yesterday afternoon. He left immediately for his destination in the East.

THE Nueces (Texas) Valley, of the 20th ult., says: "We understand that a Mexican was hung by a mob at the Banquette, about twenty five miles from this city, yesterday, for attempting robbery. It appears that the Mexican was a servant of Mrs. Elliff's, by whom he had been scolded for delinquency on Thursday, when he left her with threats. He returned the same night; and not finding Mrs. Elliff at home, broke open all the trunks on the premises, but finding nothing, then went to Mrs. Hunter's where Mrs. Elliff had fled, and attempted to break in there also, but was driven away and subsequently hung."

REV STUART ROBINSON, of Louisville Ky., was one of the foremost of those who during the rebellion openly advocated the importation of infected clothing from plague-stricken foreign cities to be spread broadcast through the North. A few days ago, while passing through Cincinnati, one of the cities where he hoped the plague might be started, he caught the small-pox, and is now dangerously ill with that loathsome disease. Of this the Springfield Republican says: "Brother Haven will of course see another case of retributive justice here, and we leave him to make the application, as only he can do it properly."

A QUESTION of amusing nicety vexes the restored serenity of Louisiana politics. A letter of resignation was sent, the other day, to Gov. Warmoth, from one of the New Orleans Recorders, and a new man at once appointed to the vacancy. When the new official presented himself at his office, that gentleman, greatly amazed, declared that he had never given up his place; that, like Tammany, "resignation was not one of his virtues," and he refused to submit to the trickery of being ousted on a false letter to the Governor. But His Excellency refuses to retract his new appointment. The court decided that a man could not be removed in this way, and the State of Louisiana has to pay two men for the same place, unless a higher court reverses the decision.

Fechter's New Theatre.

[New York Correspondence of Boston Post.]

Fechter's new theater, the old "Fourteenth Street," transformed into a bright new play-house, is to by opened in March, and workmen are now busily engaged in making it ready, finishing up the task begun in October. The simple, sober, harmless name of "The Lyceum" has been chosen for it. Judging from a just published description of the plan which the architect has drawn under the supervision of Mr. Fletcher, and the builders are following, it is to be a pretty box, quaintly and dramatically arranged. The auditorium is seventy-five feet wide by a hundred and fifteen deep, and is fifty feet high. There will be seats for 1,500 people. The ceiling will be painted in imitation of rose colored satin overlaid with white lace, and the front of the balcony and galleries, the boxes and the proscenium arch will be of trellis work and papier-mache, painted to appear overrun with flowers and vines, so that the interior will appear cheery and gay. The stage is seventy-two feet wide by forty feet deep. It will have no foot-lights, but will be illuminated by a large calcium reflector in the ceiling of the auditorium; and in a well in front of it will be no gentlemen of the orchestra as in other theatres—at least in view of the house—but in their place, hiding them, "a row of papier-mache basket work, supporting a profusion of natural and artificial flowers," through which jets of water will play from fountains underneath, during the performance of music between the acts. There will be no flats. The stage will be overarched by a dome of papier-mache forty-six feet in height, lighted by a reflector in the proscenium arch, which is also designed to aid in the production of striking effects of sky and moonlight. It is made in two movable sections, so as to permit the lowering of scenes by machinery from a compartment above. The exterior will have a massive portico supported by Corinthian columns, and will be ornamented by pilasters. A balustrade will ornament the roof, crowned at intervals with carved baskets of fruits and flowers, and three figures of females in bas relief representing Fame, Painting, and sculpture, together with various emblems of music, will adorn the pediment. There will be five large windows in the front with ornamental carving, and five entrance doors immediately beneath. The vestibule will be fifteen by fifty-one feet, and underneath it will be a refreshment room assessible only from the interior of the building. Of Fechter's company nothing is certainly known that Arthur Leclercq is to be his manager, and it is positively stated that Paul Juignet, formerly manager of the French theatre here, and well known in Boston, will be of the new theatre's people, possibly stage manager, and that Miss Leclercq, Fechter's principal support during his representations of last year in this country, will be the leading lady. Mr. Fetchter is now in England. He was quite ill when he went away from here, but he is said to be improving. The theatre is to cost about $90,000. Mr. Fechter appears as the sole proprietor. It will, however, be heavily mortgaged. Perhaps it is needless to add that the general character of the performances within it will be romantic melo-drama.

A NEW YORK lady, writing of the various afflictions of New Year's day and its calls, culminates with this one: "There ought to be a law made against boys being let loose upon an innocent and unsuspecting public in this way. They generally go in crowds to keep up their courage; they have nothing particular to say to anybody; they wear an unhappy look, as if they wished arms and legs were not necessary members of the human body; and they get so bewildered when it is time to make an exit that we long to put them in a corner, with Mother Goose and a piece of cake."

THE Gaulois says that while the Prince of Wales was at his worst, some merchants proposed to an insurance office to effect a policy upon his life, and the transaction was arranged. The premium amounted to over $20,000, but the amount payable in the event of death would have reached millions.

FINANCIAL.

THE 7-30 LOAN
AT HOME AND ABROAD.

The recent negotiations of NORTHERN PACIFIC 7-30 Gold Bonds IN LONDON added to the previous LARGE SALES IN THE UNITED STATES, furnishes means for the completion of a large portion of the Road, and assures the EARLY ABSORPTION OF THE REMAINDER OF THE LOAN.

These Bonds are issued in denominations of from $100 to $1,000 COUPON, and $100 to $10,000 REGISTERED, have thirty years to run, bear an interest of 7 30 per cent. in gold, and are EXEMPT FROM UNITED STATES TAX.

They are secured by a First and only Mortgage UPON THE RAILROAD, ITS FRANCHISES, AND ALL THE LANDS AND PROPERTY NOW POSSESSED BY THE COMPANY, OR WHICH IT MAY HEREAFTER ACQUIRE.

The Bonds are offered at par and accrued interest in currency; and with their ample security and high rate of interest, there is no investment accessible to the people which is more profitable or safe.

These bonds are for sale for currency or in exchange for all marketable securities by the following named Banks and Bankers in Pittsburgh:

PEOPLES SAVINGS BANK.
WESTERN SAVINGS BANK.
MASONIC DEPOSIT BANK.
N. HOLMES & SONS.
IRA B. McVAY & CO.
J. T. BRADY & CO.
HART, CAUGHEY & CO.

I unhesitatingly recommend these bonds as a safe, reliable and profitable investment.

J. K. MOORHEAD,
GEN'L AGENT FOR PITTSBURGH DISTRICT
ja27:j67-TTHS

$400,000
Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota R. R.
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
To 92½ and Interest.

The amount above named is all that remains of an issue of $5,400,000 Bonds; and in view of the small amount unsold the Company has raised the price from 90 to 92½ and interest, henceforth.

The mortgage deed authorizes the issue of $6,600,000 Bonds; a modification of the plan of construction will confine the issue however to $20,000 per mile, making the total as above stated. The remainder of the Bonds will be cancelled by the Trustees.

Construction is now stopped on the road. The entire equipment will be hereafter devoted to increasing the earnings.

The receipts for the last five months from local traffic, over a portion only of the line, and while much of the equipment was in use for construction purposes, were as follows:

August receipts	$67,244.82
September "	95,622.53
October "	73,604.58
November "	69,393.69
December "	62,650.97

The net earnings out of this amount were more than 10 per cent. on the amount of the mortgage indebtedness of the road applying against the portion in operation. The figures above given represent actual cash receipts, no charges being made for construction account.

As soon as the $400,000 Bonds remaining on hand shall be disposed of, the security will be placed upon the New York Stock Exchange, and the merits of the Bonds will entitle them to take rank with any Railway Mortgage upon the Exchange List, none of which sell below par.

Detailed Report will be furnished on application.
